Two New Junior Highs, Four Elementary Schools Are Proposed for Centralization

Hall for Trinity Lutheran

Architect's sketch shows proposed renovated parish hall of Trinity Lutheran Church, President's Place, which will contain 13 classrooms for the rapidly expanding Sunday school and will make available meeting rooms for the tremendously growing church organizations, it was announced by Elmer Rylance, church president.

The Rev. Frank Lawrence Gollnick, DD, pastor, will maintain his office in the parish hall which will include also the secretaries' rooms. A modern kitchen and modern facilities will be included in the building.

IT IS THE GOAL of the church board that the work can be completed before the fall program begins.

Growth of the church has made it necessary to purchase a new parsonage for the pastor at 158 West Chestnut street.

In conjunction with the advancement program, the Rev. Mr. Gollnick announced the gift to the church of a 16-acre estate with a six-room modern house from Miss Anna Orthmann of Allaben, a devoted and loyal member of the parish. The estate is located at Allaben.

IT IS INTENDED to be used by youth groups and other organizations in the parish for picnics, retreats, spiritual and recreational activities. Oscar J. Lawatsch, former president of the congregation, together with the pastor and church council are supervising this phase of the larger program of the parish.

Joseph Benjamin, chairman of the Trinity Advancement Committee, hailed this gift as further evidence of the expanding work of Trinity Lutheran Church, the oldest Lutheran Church in Kingston.

Robert Kelder, treasurer of the advancement appeal, said this is further evidence of Trinity's attainment of several goals during the past 10 years.

Fourth of July In Saugerties To Be Biggest

The annual observance of the Fourth of July, Independence Day in Saugerties Wednesday will be one of the largest ever held according to plans outlined at the special observance committee meeting held this week.

A list of 13 floats thus far entered was presented to the meeting by Mrs. Milton Armstrong, chairman of the float committee. Her report also included 16 marching units, 10 special cars, six fire trucks and the 40 and 8 locomotive from Kingston.

Father Knickerbocker, symbol of New York city and national good will emissary will head the parade as honorary grand marshal.

FOUR MUSICAL marching units have been contracted to date to provide the cadence for the marchers according to a joint report by Parade Marshals Harold Swart, Daniel Hogan, William Brown and Valmore Carpenter. The services of additional musical units is still being sought by the marshals, they reported.

Organizations entering floats include Cub Scout Pack 130, VFW; Atonement Lutheran Church Sunday school, Happy Blue Birds, Pioneer Girls and Boys Brigade of First Baptist Church; Auxiliary of Centerville Fire Company, WSCS of Malden Methodist Church, Auxiliary of Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW; Young Adult Civic Council, Catholic Youth Organization of St. Mary's Church; Auxiliary of Lamouree-Hackett Post 72, American Legion; Veterans Non-Commissioned Officers Association of the 156th Field Artillery reserve of Kingston; Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club of Saugerties.

Marching groups in addition to Saugerties District Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cub Scouts; Saugerties Council Camp Fire Girls and Blue Bird units; Pioneer Girls and Boys Brigade include: Auxiliary of the VFW, members of the Post and Dads of Foreign Service Veterans; Legionnaires of the local

Asks Reds to Accept

Bonn, Germany, June 28 (AP)—Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano called on the Soviet Union today to accept the reunification of Germany "in its own interest." Opening a foreign policy debate in parliament, Brentano declared that "no German government would oppose real security guarantees to the Soviet Union." "Russia must know," he said, "that in its own interest it is better to have a Germany unified in freedom than all the Germans against them.

Blame Is Shifted: Trooper

Sgt. Adams Takes Stand in Court

Newburgh, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Two men on trial charged with the murder of former boxer Al Frias have tried to blame each other for the crime, according to testimony of a state trooper who questioned the pair.

Joseph Marsala and George Ruocco, Both 26, are on trial in Orange county court on charges of shooting the one-time welterweight fighter from Fall River, Mass., in a counterfeit money deal.

THE TRIAL continues today.

State Polic Sgt. William J. Adams testified yesterday about the questioning of Marsala after his arrest in New York city last Aug. 5. Adams said no force was used in obtaining a purported confession from Marsala.

Adams testified Marsala said Ruocco did the killing. A purported signed confession by Ruocco, previously entered in evidence, quoted him as saying Marsala shot Frias.

THE WITNESS said Marsala gave this account of the slaying, in which the prosecution says Frias was robbed while seeking to buy $20,000 worth of counterfeit money for $6,000.

Marsala and Ruocco met Frias in New York city. Using Ruocco's auto, they drove north from the city, telling Frias they were going to meet a contact man on the bogus money deal. Marsala drove the car because Ruocco did not have a driver's license, and Frias sat in the front seat and Ruocco in the back. Marsala heard a gunshot in the back seat, and Frias slumped over. Marsala stopped the car. Ruocco got out and opened the front door, and Frias' body fell out. Marsala refused to help Ruocco dump the body in a ditch. Marsala and Ruocco drove on for a few minutes, and Ruocco threw his gun into a ravine. The two men then returned to New York city. Ruocco later gave Marsala $1,600—presumably out of Frias' $6,000. Marsala said he

Comptroller Is Probing Charge Of City Worker

The New York State Comptroller's office has submitted findings in a local investigation to the Ulster county district attorney, according to information received today from the Associated Press of Albany.

Although the charge was not given, the state office said that an affidavit had been filed by an employe of the City of Kingston, which precipitated the probe.

Representatives of the New York State Board of Audit and Control have been at the city hall for several days, it was said.

At Albany it was announced that "the comptroller deems the charge (of the city employe) of such gravity that he sent an investigator to determine the facts."

The investigator, he said, found "the complaint to be fairly well substantiated."

It was also said that the comptroller's office had submitted its findings to the district attorney for "whatever action he deems necessary."

Efforts to reach the district attorney at noon were unavailing.

Ten Road Deaths to Be Probed

Albany, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has ordered an investigation into four highway accidents—all involving trailer trucks—that took 10 lives yesterday in New York state.

Tractor-trailer trucks and automobiles were involved in three, a trailer truck and pickup truck in the fourth.

FOUR PERSONS were killed in other truck-auto accidents in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania communities near the New York border.

Harriman said that he had asked Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts to cooperate in the investigation of a collision, in which five died between a Massachusetts truck and an automobile in Nassau, Rensselaer county.

THE GOVERNOR said the accident "highlights the necessity for closer cooperation among the states in the drive to put an end to such tragedies on our highways."

He said that it was generally

Steel Talks To Resume Late Today

Move Is Defeated To Delay Deadline

New York, June 28 (AP)—The nation's steel industry began banking its fires today after major companies and the United Steelworkers of America rejected each other's proposals to delay a Saturday midnight strike of 650,000 workers.

Negotiations were not broken off when the flurry of compromise proposals failed last night. But with the deadline nearing, fires began going out in plants across the country.

WORKERS AT U. S. Steel's Gary, Ind., works, largest in the world, and at Bethlehem's Sparrows Point plant in Maryland, the next largest began slowing down coke ovens and were scheduled to begin banking blast furnaces late tonight.

And, unless a sudden settlement is reached, open hearth fires would get their last stoking sometime tomorrow.

Similar cooling off operations were reported at dozens of smaller plants in this key industry.

NEGOTIATIONS were to resume today, despite the breakdown in efforts to extend the contract. A meeting between management and union negotiating teams was scheduled for 3 p. m. EDT.

Both sides worked frantically last night to avert a shutdown and each blamed the other when efforts ended in stalemate.

Twelve major companies began the exchange of compromise proposals by suggesting in a letter to union president David J. McDonald that the strike be postponed indefinitely and negotia-

Newsmen to Tour Kingston IBM Plant

Hudson valley and New York city newspapermen will tour the Kingston plant of International Business Machines Friday.

During the inspection, starting at 11 a. m., visitors will see a production model of the Sage computer made for the air force, and delivery date will be announced.

The new electric typewriter plant will be open to show production methods.

IBM will entertain its guests at a luncheon in the Governor Clinton Hotel, following the tour.

Day Center to Open For Mental Patients

Albany, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—A day-hospital center for outpatient treatment of mental patients will be opened July 2 at the Hudson River State Hospital, Poughkeepsie, it was announced today, to determine the value of day-hospital care in treatment of mental illness.

The Hudson River day center will operate on a five-day weekly schedule. Patients will receive psychiatric treatment on a voluntary outpatient basis, enabling them to live at home and continue family and business activities where possible.

China Sure To Reject Island Bid

Hong Kong, June 28 (AP)—Red China's Premier Chou En-lai tonight proposed direct negotiations with Nationalist China to arrange the "peaceful" transfer of Formosa to the Communists.

"The dying gasp of the Taiwan (Formosan) authorities under the United States cannot last for long," Chou said in a speech to the National People's Congress—Communist China's Parliament—in Peiping.

THE SPEECH was broadcast by Peiping radio.

"On behalf of the government," Chou said, "I formally declare we are willing to negotiate with the Taiwan authorities (the Nationalist) on specific steps and conditions for the peaceful liberation of Taiwan and we hope that Taiwan authorities will send their representative to Peiping to discuss these tasks with us."

"Liberation" is the term Peiping always uses for the transfer of Formosa to its control. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's anti-Communist government on Formosa was certain to reject Chou's offer, as it has all previous suggestions that it give up the big island 100 miles off the Chinese mainland.

CHOU WAS firm in his calls for the "liberation" of Formosa, but his words did not ring with the belligerency of some of his past pronouncements on the Nationalist-held island.

"The Chinese people are deter-

Electrol Profit $92,027 in Year

Net profit of Electrol Incorporated, 85 Grand street, for the fiscal year ended March 31 was reported at $92,027, as compared with a net loss of $145,202 in the preceding year.

The earnings, which were realized on net sales of $3,978,307, were equal to 28 cents a share. They contrast with a loss of 46 cents a share a year earlier, when sales were $4,407,946.

B. N. Ashton, president, noted that the company did not actually progress from operating losses to operating profits until the year was more than half over. The betterment of the company's position was attributed to new and improved methods of operation, the report said.

As a result of a new sales program, orders were received at an average rate of $1,114,000 per quarter as compared to $831,000 in the prior year. The backlog of unfilled orders mounted from $1,876,000 to $2,700,000.

The company produces hydraulic products for aircraft, industrial and mobile applications.

State Report Will Be Studied by Committee

Estimated Cost of Buildings Would Be 6 Million for City, 24 Districts

A state plan for proposed consolidation of outlying school districts with the city of Kingston envisages construction within the next five years of two new junior high schools at an estimated cost of $4,000,000 and four new elementary schools at an estimated cost of $2,000,000.

The 25-page report, just released by the State Education Department, was distributed Wednesday night at a meeting in Kingston High School of approximately 100 trustees, officials and interested persons from Kingston and 24 outlying school districts embraced in the proposed consolidation.

A STEERING committee will be appointed in the near future to guide study of the state plan. This committee, to consist of trustees, lay and professional people, will be appointed by Superintendents Earl Soper of Kingston schools, Reginald Bennett of Supervisory District No. 1 and Clarence Johnson of Supervisory District No. 2.

Approximately 50 trustees voted to establish such a committee. The superintendents requested time to consult in the selection of persons to make up this highly important group.

THE AREA embraced in the proposed consolidation is roughly north to the Saugerties Central School, west to the Onteora Central School, south to the Highland Central School and southwest to the new Marbletown Central School.

According to the detailed financial report, the assessed valuation of the enlarged city district is $28,454,932, with a true valuation of $156,657,493. Outstanding bonded indebtedness amounts to $3,113,000.

THE FOLLOWING buildings outside the city of Kingston would be used for elementary schools:

Ulster No. 8—18 full-size classrooms; Esopus No. 1—14 full-size classrooms; Woodstock No. 2—8 full-size classrooms; Hurley No. 5—6 full-size classrooms; Rosendale No. 2—3 full-size classrooms; Ulster No. 4—7 full-size classrooms, and Hurley No. 4—7 full-size classrooms.

The total of such classrooms outside Kingston is 63, each estimated at 27 pupils per room. This would provide adequate space for 4,867 pupils. An estimated total of 6,269 pupils must be housed however, by 1961-62. In order to provide adequate facilities for these additional 1,402 pupils it would require new elementary construction worth an estimated $2,000,000. The bond issue could be amortized over a 30-year period.

THE CITY of Kingston has available 108 full-size classrooms, 11 of which are used for kindergarten rooms. The elementary classrooms have been estimated at a capacity of 27 pupils and the 10 kindergartens at a capacity of 50.

The estimates indicate that after one year of operation as an enlarged city, the proposed district would be entitled to additional state aid in the amount of $434,257.

IT IS pointed out very carefully in the report that the estimates are based "on many variables, changes in any one of which may materially alter the results."

In prefatory remarks, Superintendent Soper also called attention to these variables which must be taken into consideration in analysis of the report.

Average daily attendance during the period from 1956-57 to 1961-62 could be expected to increase from 7,604 to approximately 9,500, according to the report.

THE FOLLOWING table of true valuation — used to estimate state aid and tax rates — was listed: 1956-57 — $168,000,000; 1957-58 — $171,300,000; 1958-59 — $174,750,000; 1959-60 — $178,200,000; 1960-61 — $181,750,000 and 1961-62 — $185,300,000.

Estimated receipts (based on an attendance of 8,450 pupils in kindergarten through Grade 12) would increase from $3,488,526 in 1956-57 to $5,002,166 in 1961-62.

State aid would amount to $1,300,000 in 1956-57 and $2,370,000 in 1961-62.

SALARY PAYMENTS for administration, supervision, teachers, nurses and dental hygienists would increase from $2,039,130 in 1956-57 to $2,882,560 in 1961-62, the report estimates.

The report shows the estimated cost for two different plans of transportation:

1. Continuation of private contract and public service transportation throughout the six-year period.
2. Gradual replacement of

Improved Mail Service on Way For Ulster Town

Congressman J. Ernest Wharton, (29th District, N. Y.) reports that the U. S. Post Office Department through an investigation of its New York regional office has underway plans to provide improved mail delivery service to the patrons of the star route operating out of the Lake Katrine post office.

The department, also, is authorizing a contract station of the Kingston post office to be located between the city line and the plant of the International Business Machines Corporation.

It is hoped that the plans for the change in the delivery service will be completed in time to begin actual delivery by Sept. 1, 1956, and the bids for the operation of the new station will be sought early in July.

The need for these improved postal facilities, according to reports received by Congressman Wharton, are the result of the continued construction of new homes in Ruby and Lake Katrine. One source reported that "it was almost impossible to predict just what the population of this part of the Town of Ulster would be, even in the short span of six months."

Percy Bush, supervisor of the town of Ulster, and the Halcyon Park Civic Association, through its chairman, Albert R. Harrison, were instrumental in requesting a review of the postal requirements of the locality.

Opposition Given Lucas Avenue Parking Grounds

A zoning change sought for a property off Lucas avenue, near Green street, for the development of a parking area, met opposition at a public hearing held by the laws and rules committee of the Common Council Wednesday night.

Two other applications were unopposed and questions were raised on a proposed fourth change.

Residents of the Lucas Avenue-Green street area opposed the application of Charles Hoppe, of 125 Green street, because they felt the location of a parking lot in that area would be "putting a wedge" into a residential section.

A request to provide additional land for development by the Strelene Realty Corp. of the proposed cement plant in the Steep Rocks area raised questions by residents of that section whether the environment of the neighborhood would be disturbed.

Opposition to the parking lot proposal was led by Attorney Andrew J. Cook Jr., who said he represented petitioners in that section. Others who opposed the application included Alderman Richard V. Roth of the 12th Ward, W. Anderson Carl, of 138 Green street, Mrs. Charles C. Fogg, of 147 Green street, Attorney James C. Plunket, of 316 Washington avenue and Alderman Hirschell Mayes of the First Ward.

They expressed the thought that a change would be the "wedge" into a residential area and other changes would follow with more business locations in the area.

Mr. Hoppe said he believed the parking area would be a convenience to employes in the uptown section of the city and gave assurance there would be no parking in the lot during the night. He said he was willing to erect a gate or barrier at the entrance to the lot which would prohibit parking there after 5 p. m.

Mr. Plunket, who also opposed it as a "wedge" into a residential area, said the proposed parking area was located near School 7 and the traffic created by the parking lot would make conditions more hazardous.

Opponents of the application also mentioned the "danger of spot zoning" and that people who buy property in the area as

IBM Pledges $60,000 To Kingston Hospital

Allan L. Hanstein, president of the Board of Trustees of Kingston Hospital, today acknowledged a pledge to the hospital development fund of $60,000 by the Kingston Plant, International Business Machines Corporation.

In making the pledge, Robert P. Crago, general manager of the plant, presented a check for $30,000, representing the first of two payments in fulfillment of the pledge.

Mr. Crago said that IBM's contribution to the hospital's building program was in keeping with the company's policy of sharing with the community the responsibility for providing improved hospital facilities.

In expressing the appreciation of the hospital's board of trustees, Mr. Hanstein said, "The entire community can be grateful to IBM for this substantial donation, indicative of the interest and support the company has continually shown in the improvement of community facilities.

"This contribution brings the hospital closer to its goal of completing the two top floors of our new wing, which will provide a new operating room suite and a completely new maternity department."

Mr. Hanstein pointed out that the lower five floors of the wing are nearing completin and stressed the desirability of completing the upper floors at the earliest possible date.

Five Flood Damage Projects for $5,253.30 Are Approved by State for Ulster County

Five flood damage repair projects totalling $5,253.30 in Ulster county, including one in the town of Gardiner, two in the town of Kingston, one in the town of Hardenburgh and one in the town of Ulster, have been approved, it was announced today by John W. Johnson, state superintendent of public works.

The projects are among 27 which became eligible for state aid under provisions of the $1,500,000 Emergency Flood Repair Bill signed April 14 by Gov. Harriman.

The bill, introduced by Assemblyman Kenneth Wilson of Woodstock, was a piece of emergency legislation passed by the state legislature in the dying hours of the session late last March.

They are in addition to the 124 flood projects approved April 19. Other projects are located in the counties of Orange, Delaware, Greene, Montgomery, Sullivan, Tioga, Westchester and Dutchess and will involve a total of $53,014.35 in state aid.

The projects in Ulster county are as follows:

Town of Gardiner—one project. Amount approved, $500. Tillson Lake, Clove. Aumick and Gilford mountain roads. Repair roadway and shoulders.

Town of Kingston—Two projects. Amount approved $2,800. Repairs to town roads and bridges, including Walker's road bridge and Jockie Hill road.

Town of Hardenburgh—One project. Amount approved, $970. Rider Hollow, Dry Brook and Beaverkill roads. Repairs.

Town of Ulster—One project. Amount approved, $983.30. Halcyon Park area. Repairs to roadway and shoulders.

The Emergency Flood Bill was designed to give state assistance to communities in repairing public facilities which were damaged in the floods of August and October, 1955. A number of communities did not submit requests until just prior to May 14, the final day for receipt of applications and these requests for aid are now being investigated and processed, Mr. Johnson said.

Hurley Man Heart Victim At Little League Stadium

Frederick Nash, 28, of 7 Hurley drive, Hurley died suddenly about 8 p. m. Wednesday at Little League baseball field in that village.

Mr. Nash, an insurance adjuster for the Merchants Mutual Casulty Company, had lived in Hurley for the past two and a half years. He served as manager of the Hurley Dodgers, a member of the Little League.

When Mr. Nash suffered the attack some of the boys ran to the home of Dr. Harry C. McNamara, who treated Mr. Nash at the scene.

Coroner Francis J. Mc Cardle said Mr. Nash was pronounced dead on arrival at Benedictine Hospital. He was taken to the hospital by Schultz Ambulance.

Coroner Mc Cardle ordered a postmortem which was performed today by Dr. Bernard Adilman, consulting pathologist of the Kingston City Laboratory.

The coroner said Mr. Nash died of cardiac hypertrophy with aortic insufficiency.

Mr. Nash was a member of Plainsmen's Association of Albany, the Hurley Fire Department and the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Parish, Kingston.

Surviving are his widow, Nondica Hull Nash; a daughter, Darlene, 1½; a son Clifford, 4; his father, William A. Nash of Brooklyn; two brothers, William of Newburgh and Frank of Brooklyn.

The funeral will be held at Sweet and Keyser Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue at 9:30 a. m. Saturday with a solemn High requiem Mass at St. Joseph's Church at 10 a. m. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home any time after 12 noon Friday.

Cost-Cutting On Homes Can Be Expensive

Builders can go too far in cutting costs in the houses they put up and lending agencies are not wise in letting them do it.

That's the gist of an article in a recent issue of the Mortgage Banker, official organ of the Mortgage Bankers of America. It is entitled, "Common Mistakes in Home Designing."

According to the author, Joseph A. Nowicki, "it isn't sensible for the lender to allow cost cutting that destroys future market appeal of the security for his loan."

Mr. Nowicki, who operates in Chicago, is an independent appraiser, real estate consultant, home builder and a director of the Society of Residential Appraisers.

To prove his point, he cited the example of a $20 saving effected by installing a 30-gallon water heater instead of the 40-gallon size that is needed for convenient operation of domestic washers.

The smaller heater is a "costly economy in terms of the comfort and marketability of the house," he said.

"Over a period of 10 years, the cost is barely noticeable. but the typical family thinking about buying the home would resist buying even with an adjustment for the cost of a new heater because of the nuisance of the replacement and also their reluctance to waste the remaining usefulness of the smaller heater."

Other examples of false economy Mr. Nowicki cited, are the building of three-bedroom houses with only one bath; the placing of windows over bathtubs as a space-saving expedient and inadequate wiring.

Lions to Honor New Leader at Miami Tonight

Miami, Fla., June 28 (AP) — Lions International staged one of this convention city's most flamboyant parades last night. Tonight, still rampant, they'll honor their American prospective leader in a festive program in the football-famous Orange Bowl.

John L. Stickley of Charlotte, N. C., unopposed in Saturday's forthcoming 39th annual election, will be guest of honor on "North Carolina Night" sponsored by Lions clubs of his state.

North Carolina's delegation of 600 was the largest in the parade cheered by an estimated 100,000 spectators along banner-decked Biscayne Boulevard.

LOUISIANA Lions, however, scored a triumph in the victory of their proteges, Bossier High School band, in contest among 50 musical units that blared out the marching tempo.

Bossier City's entry won a $500 first prize. Defending champion Mississippi All-State Band, comprising musicians from numerous schools, took second place and $400. Third prize of $300 was taken by San Diego's Bonham Brothers Boys Band, fourth place and $200 by Easton, Pa., Wilsonboro Area High Band, and fifth prize of $100 by Glade Water, Tex., High.

THE 108th York Band of Toronto won the drum and bugle corps contest. Four Lakes Boy Scouts of Madison, Wis., were second. Monro, La., twirlers won baton laurels with Wilsonboro of Easton, Pa., runnerup. Panama and Worcester, Pa., entries were judged best of 40 parade floats, and the judges said Texas' colorful Cowpokes were the smartest-turned out delegation in line.

After tonight's party in the Orange Bowl, the convention turns to more formal pursuits of getting slates of officers lined up for election and installation.

The convention is scheduled Friday to hear Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. delegate to the United Nations, and North Carolina Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina. Vice President Richard M. Nixon will speak Saturday.

Many Woods Available

Kitchen cabinets and base units are manufactured in a wide choice of attractive woods. Among the favored species are birch, maple, mahogany, oak, gum, pine and fir.

Slicing Wood Thin

Trying to cut off a thin slice of wood with a handsaw can be difficult. An easy way to handle this job is to clamp two pieces of scrap wood to each side and then saw through all three. The scrap wood will act as a guide and allow you to saw off very thin slices of wood without difficulty.

Laying Linoleum

Next time you put down linoleum, run the face of a hammer over the seam. This will force down the edges of the linoleum into the cement and help insure a good tight seam.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

I see in the 10 and 20 years ago that on "June 24, 1936, Henry Ford bought the replica of the Clermont, which had been at Kingston Point since the Hudson-Fulton celebration." As I understand it was the machinery that was sold, but according to the arrangements of the Hudson-Fulton celebration committee in 1909, that Clermont was to remain at Kingston Point Park as an exhibit, and was to be kept in good repair and in readiness for any naval exhibitions or Hudson river reviews that might take place in the future. Committees mean well while they are in force, but once the project is over, and time marches on, strange things happen, such as the disposal of the replica of the Clermont which according to arrangements was to 'forever' belong to the people of New York state. For more details I refer the readers to the two mammoth books on the Hudson-Fulton Celebration which gives detailed pictures of the Clermont full steam ahead and showing sails and people on its deck. Believe me if that same Clermont, with its narrow decks and its tall smoke stack would steam up the Hudson it would attract no end of attention. If it was still in good condition no doubt the members of Mystic, Conn., Museum would be interested in it. They have made a good thing of their naval museum. Folks from all over the nation come to enjoy its ever growing exhibitions and it is being written up in various magazines and newspapers all the time.

There is no end of historical information in those two Hudson-Fulton Celebration books. In one is given the speech of Hon. L. Bradford Prince, a native of Flushing, and later governor of New Mexico, gave an interesting address during the historical exercises from which I quote part: "Hudson, with the one idea in view of discovering China and India and the riches a western passage to the seas of of the Orient, sailed up the mighty river whose broad waters he thought must be those of a strait, and after reaching the head of the tidewater and thus learning his mistake, returned to Manhattan and sailed back to Holland, a disappointed man. How could Hudson have guessed, that 300 years after he had turned back in disappointment, his name should be borne by the most majestic of rivers; that railroads and steamboats and tunnels and streets should be called after him; that the greatest city in the new world, soon to be the greatest that has ever existed upon earth, should devote weeks of time and millions of money to the most enthusiastic and magnificent celebration of the what he thought 'worthless' discovery which he made so long ago."

Hon. L. B. Prince further went on "At the time of Hudson's voyage there were dozens of events that attracted far more attention. There were the actions of emperors and kings, while Hudson was but a humble sea captain. There were movements of great vessels and mighty fleets, while the Half Moon was but an ordinary craft. Outside of a few of those interested in Holland, the world did not even know of its existence. And yet, as a result of that voyage, the great city of the western world was established, and the center of population and activity in America fixed for centuries, in the place where we are today, which Henry Hudson discovered. Now some 350 years later we are still building bridges across this river. Those who remembered the Hudson-Fulton celebration of 1909 never forget it, perhaps in 1959 we will have another, who knows.

MITCHELL MAKES A RECORD

Inevitably some members of a President's cabinet draw more fire than others. Sometimes we forget that they are not all caught up in controversy.

For example, in President Eisenhower's case, Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture Benson and former Secretary of the Interior McKay have all come in for fairly persistent attack during his White House tenure.

We are not here trying to pass judgment on the justification of these assaults but simply to note that they don't embrace everybody. And one prominent cabinet member who manages to avoid sharp criticism is Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell.

Certainly his task was a challenging one from the outset. Most labor leaders had favored Adlai Stevenson over Mr. Eisenhower in 1952. They weren't too impressed when the President chose the late Martin Durkin, himself a labor official, as his first labor secretary. Durkin's early resignation did not exactly draw them closer.

Into this cloudy atmosphere Mitchell walked. He determined to woo labor in spite of all the obstacles. Up and down the country he has gone, speaking to every labor convention that would listen. He has made personal contact with labor leaders.

It it his view that the Republican party is just as much the friend of labor as is the Democratic, and he has pushed labor legislation with an earnestness designed to prove it.

Democrats scoff at such claims, naturally, and many labor leaders indicate they still feel their fortunes lie with their traditional allies. But at least one, James C. Petrillo of the American Federation of Musicians, is showing new interest in the GOP. And quite a few say plainly they are highly impressed with Mitchell, whatever their general views about the Republican party.

James Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, recently described the secretary as "both a fighter and an extremely courageous man."

Another leader said that whoever captures the White House this fall, Mitchell should be kept on in his present post.

A recent Gallup poll showed that, for the first time, a majority of rank and file workers prefer Mr. Eisenhower to Stevenson for President.

Democrats and union leaders would of course question this indication. But there seems little doubt that Mr. Eisenhower is more popular with workers than any GOP leader in a long time.

Without detracting anything from the President's acknowledged popularity, it seems fair to say that Secretary Mitchell ought to be cut in for some credit. Clearly, by labor's own testimony, he has been a big plus mark in the President's cabinet.

IMPROVING FITNESS

A visit to almost any beach these days gives apparent reassurances that the youth of America is not only physically fit, but blessed with abundant vitality. Yet the fact is that, in comparison with the youth of European nations, America's young people lag behind in strength and endurance.

There are doubtless a number of reasons for this, chief among them being the comparatively easy life our young people lead. An inclination toward spectator sports and passive entertainment also is a contributing factor.

But whatever the causes, this nation's relatively poor showing in physical fitness is a matter of general concern. Other things being equal, the level of health and strength could be a determining factor in our national future.

It is gratifying, therefore, that President Eisenhower plans to create a special council to supervise a program for improving physical and mental health of our young people. The plan deserves the most widespread support.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE SOBELL CASE

The efforts that are being made to have Morton Sobell released remind me of an episode during the first year of the Russian Revolution. Big Bill Haywood was in jail in the United States and a group of Bolsheviks had decided that the best way to get Haywood freed quickly would be to kidnap the American Ambassador, David Francis, and then exchange prisoner for prisoner. It was Trotzky who foiled the plot. In the first place, he put a tank with machine guns in front of the Embassy; then he told me and I told Francis.

It is certainly no crime for the friends of Morton Sobell to try to get him out of prison, provided they do it by due process of the law. Getting the aged Bertrand Russell or the existential Jean Paul Sartre to intervene is not due process. Their opinions may be interesting to their followers but cut no ice here.

Sobell's lawyers have appeared in court, before Judge Irving Kaufman, to plead that the verdict sentencing him to 30 years imprisonment be set aside on the ground that his constitutional rights had been violated. This contradicts the statement of his lawyer, E. H. Bloch, at the time of his trial. As I read Judge Kaufman's decision, no claim is made that Sobell is innocent of having conspired with Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, and with Harry Gold, David Greenglass, Klaus Fuchs and others to steal the atom bomb from the Manhattan Project at Los Alamos.

In one form or another, the Rosenberg-Sobell cases have appeared before the United States Court of Appeals six times and before the United States Supreme Court six times and the conviction has remained undisturbed.

Judge Kaufman makes this important point which apparently neither Bertrand Russell nor Jean Paul Sartre, who have intervened, recognize:

"It is difficult to find a case in the history of American jurisprudence, or indeed in the judicial annals of any other country, where the defendants' convictions and contentions have received the attention of so many judges at so many levels of a judicial system, as well as that of the President of the United States on applications for exicutive clemency. Not a single legal recourse has been or will be denied to Sobell."

Sobell's lawyers aver that Sobell was kidnapped from Mexico by agents of the Mexican Secret Police "who were acting under the orders of the FBI, and that he was thus forcibly and illegally returned to the United States against his will. . . ." Sobell's contention is that he would have returned willingly and that it was improper for the Mexican government to deport him and that actually such "kidnapping violated a treaty between the United States and Mexico." The Government of the United States denies the alleged kidnapping.

Sobell tells a harrowing tale of having been beaten by the Mexican police until he was unconscious. It is to be pointed out that Sobell did not claim the benefit of these facts until five days after his conviction. Judge Jerome Frank, who heard his first appeal, said:

"Sobell waived his right to challenge personal jurisdiction in this trial . . . (H)e made no move to bring to light the facts of his alleged illegal abduction. He preferred to take his chances on the verdict, withholding his trump card until the trial was over. The Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure allow no such tactic."

Sobell's lawyers produced no new evidence of his guiltlessness; they only claim that the original court in which the trial occurred lacked jurisdiction. To this Judge Kaufman replies:

". . . He seems to believe that by the mere device of changing attorneys and relabeling his claims, he may return to court time after time with the same basic argument. . . ."

Sobell's second claim is that false evidence was introduced in his trial. Judge Kaufman analyzes all the evidence and establishes that no perjured evidence was introduced nor was any evidence suppressed. This decision runs 48 pages and covers a lot of territory.

The judge holds that "this petition is so entirely devoid of merit that perhaps it has been unduly dignified by the minute consideration and analysis it has received in this opinion. However, an effort has been made to lay to rest with finality baseless contentions and accusations which have been repeated not primarily to aid the petitioner but rather to embarrass and injure our courts and country."

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

EVERY OTHER BED

A mental illness "epidemic" threatens the country, with at least 9,000,000 persons sufficiently disturbed mentally to warrant treatment, warns Mr. M. Gorman, Executive Director of the National Mental Health Committee, in his new book "Every Other Bed." More than 750,000 of the mentaly ill are hospitalized and this fills every other hospital bed in the United States. As the population rises, we may anticipate two-thirds of our hospital beds being occupied by the mentally ill in the near future. This is an appalling prospect, especially when we realize how very difficult it is at the present time to obtain a hospital bed unless there is a state of emergency.

What are we doing to help solve this problem? Mr. Gorman points out that this "epidemic" costs Americans $2.5 billion annually in custodial care. "Yet, the annual outlay for research from all sources did not exceed $10,000,000 last year, far less than the Department of Agriculture spends for research on diseases of cattle and hogs."

We have spoken before of the human tendency to turn a deaf ear and a blind eye to the problems of mental disease because it is something we do not understand and of which we do not wish to think. "It couldn't happen to any of us," we say, and yet it does, and will continue to do so if the present trends continue as they are certainly most likely to do.

Now, after decades, even centuries, of fatalism and failure, psychiatrists are increasingly deserting "magic and myths" about the human mind and turning to scientific investigation of the roots of mental illness. These investigations have already produced new "tranquilizing" drugs such as chlorpromazine and Serpasil about which we already have written. The main advantage of these drugs is that they calm the mentally and emotionally disturbed person from his agitated state and thus make him more open to treatment, easier for the psychiatrist to make contact with him in an attempt to find the underlying trouble and treat it.

Mr. Gorman feels that "Our great hope lies in mobilizing citizen support for an all-out research attack along these lines. We must rush construction of desperately needed research facilities and train the thousands of additional scientists and psychiatrists required to push beyond this new biochemical frontier. Under present conditions of inertia, complacency and personnel shortages, many thousands of disturbed persons both inside and outside the hospitals are inadequately treated, if at all."

Because mental illness does not kill dramatically as do various types of heart disease, we may be likely to underestimate its importance but anyone who has visited some of the wards in state hospitals realizes that these victims are undergoing a "living death." The very fact that every other hospital bed is occupied by a mentally ill person should awaken us to the efforts we must help make in the battle against the epidemic of mental illness.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA)—Creation of a cabinet advisory committee to study government aids to small business has caused a number of people to look closer to see what—if anything—ails small business.

It is normal to expect something like this in an election year. Next to Home, Mother, the Flag and the Farmer, the Small Businessman is dearest to the heart of the politician running for office. And when he speaks of some knife-and-fork meeting of a trade association, the small businessman may go from fifth to third priority.

No less an authority than the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, however, debunks the idea that small business is sick. Citing a number of recent congressional statements that "small business is virtually in a state of depression," the U.S.C.C. "Economic Intelligence" letter says, "The facts don't bear out the critics' words at all."

THE CHAMBER is not entirely convincing in its evidence. It is drawn from statistics on incorporated businesses with assets of less than $250,000. Their profits were 57 per cent higher in 1955 than in 1954. But corporations comprise only one-seventh, or 600,000, out of 4.2 million U. S. private firms.

U. S. business growth since the end of the war has been phenomenal. The 3.3 million firms in business were cut to 2.8 million at the end of 1943, but climbed back to 3.3 million by 1946 and up to 4.0 million by 1948.

There was a net gain of 50,000 a year, or 200,000, in the next four years. The number has averaged around 4.2 million since then, being 4,252,000 at the end of 1955.

A record 374,200 new businesses were established last year. But 311,000 disappeared and 321,000 changed ownership. The net gain was 63,000.

Most small businesses are of course unincorporated. Seventy-five per cent have fewer than four employes. Statistics on these smallest businesses aren't too good.

FAILURES ON incorporated businesses rose 24 per cent January, 1954, through December, 1954. But they were offset by new business incorporations—up 36 per cent in the same time.

Dun & Bradstreet reports that business failures have been running at the rate of 238 to 279 a week in May, as against 203 to 237 a week in May, 1955. The number is up but the percentage of all business firms is down.

What is not generally realized is that it is normal for small business to have a high death rate. A U. S. Department of Commerce "Survey of Current Business" report last December showed that the median U. S. business was only seven years old.

Half the new firms established from 1946 to 1954 were sold or liquidated within two years. A new business has one chance in three of surviving four years, one chance in five that it will survive 10 years.

IT IS THIS LOW survival rate that is the real cause of worry. Many ill-conceived business enterprises that fail should never have been started in the first place. Others may have been sound but lacked capital, credit, know-how, labor, materials or marketing experience.

The U. S. government maintains many services to help small business. Since the great depression there have been Reconstruction Finance Corp., Smaller War Plants Corp. and now Small Business Administration. In Department of Commerce, Department of Justice, Federal Trade Commission, Housing and Home Finance Agency and the procurement services of Department of Defense are special offices set up to aid small business. The affairs of small business have been investigated repeatedly by Congress.

Complaints from small business firms to government are continuous. But they are said to be no more frequent now than in the depressed 30's, the war-torn 40's and early booming 50's.

The new cabinet committee under Dr. Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, is now studying all existing government small business aid programs. Eventually it will recommend to the President what else might be done to help the free, private enterprise system stand on its own feet.

June 28, 1946—Russell F. Cunningham was appointed physical education teacher and assistant football coach.

LeRoy Timmerman, 37, of Cairo, was killed instantly when the milk trailer he was driving left the road near Quarryville hill on Route 32.

Kingston bakeries reported a shortage of flour.

Prompt discovery of the fire saved the home of Mrs. Florence Davis, who is blind, at Eddyville this morning, and she was helped safely from the burning house by Shirley Kennedy, 12, who had gone to the house to learn whether Mrs. Davis desired any errands made.

School tax rate is $17.64 per thousand and the budget shows $95,412 increase over 1945.

Joe Louis, world's heavyweight champion, here to make a personal appearance at a boxing show, said Tami Mauriello was the next likely contender, presumably in a September bout.

The Frauenkirche (Church of Our Lady) in Dresden, Germany was completed with the Grand prize won in a lottery. The church was begun in 1727 but construction was suspended for lack of money. It was then that one of the parishioners bought a 4 taler lot in a lottery, vowing to use his winnings to complete the church. The lot drew a grand prize of 4.000 taler ($2,840) which was sufficient to complete the church in 1743.

Recent Actions Held Proof Congress Hasn't Gone Soft

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, June 28—Whether it be the will of the people or the confused thinking of their conscientious representatives here in trying to determine what to do in a distraught world, the Congress of the United States is saying some pertinent things these days which ought not to escape the notice of foreign offices everywhere, domestic and foreign propagandists, and prominent Americans returning from their travel abroad.

For the Congress is striving to cut down foreign aid by a billion dollars and at the same time is increasing appropriations for air power by a billion.

"Money talks," and, in this instance, it says a great deal. It tells the folks who have been shouting loudly that America is putting too much emphasis on "military alliances" that the Congress of the United States hasn't gone soft despite the criticism from the so-called "liberal" sources and from those Democrats who have been carping about how this country is throwing its weight around in a military sense.

IT TELLS THE folks who have been transparently seeking to drive a wedge between President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles that their troubles in getting more money out of America do not happen to be concentrated in the executive branch of the United States government but in the Congress.

It tells the wobbling and wavering countries abroad, including certain allies and also certain so-called "neutral" countries, that maybe they have persuaded the Congress that it is unwise to rely on overseas bases. Whatever propaganda victories Communist Russia gets out of the "Yankee-go-home" slogans in Iceland's election campaign or in Egypt or in Tunisia or elsewhere, the Congress of the United States is beginning to believe that the best way to protect this country is by intercontinental bombers, a strong Naval Air Force with carriers fully equipped to carry all kinds of bombs, and a mobile force of ground troops.

Members of Congress cannot in the very nature of things become military experts, but they are swayed by events in the world that take on special significance to them. For weeks a few Democrats, with some traces of partisan motivation, have been regularly picking flaws in the foreign policy of the United States with a series of speeches. Whenever the Kremlin makes an effective move of infiltration somewhere, it is promptly blamed on Mr. Dulles, or on Mr. Eisenhower's illness or his lack of pressure on Congress. It is immediately urged, moreover, that there be a "re-examination" of our policies.

Unless, of course, the Democrats who articulate on this subject really want the United States to get into a war in order to force the Communists to behave, there isn't much point in blaming the State Department for the aggressive acts of the Kremlin.

BUT THE CRITICS who must really be disappointed over the attitude of Congress this week are those who have been extolling Nehru and praising his virtues as a "neutralist." They have been arguing that America should give more and more money to "win men's minds" in the "neutralist" countries. They have been complaining that the Southeast Asia treaties are actually sinister—as they do no doubt look to Nehru and the Communists—but they forget that these pacts were meant to be a warning against further aggression when the Indo-China truce was signed and a means of discouraging any more Korean wars.

It is remarkable how soon those Americans who are thinking so much about the objectives of foreign countries can so readily forget the objectives of their own country. It seems to be fashionable to find fault with the American policies—the foreigners are pictured as always right.

BUT THE CONGRESS, irrespective of party, has spoken this week—somewhat awkwardly, to be sure, and without a clear-cut explanation of what's back of it all, yet plainly on one point. For the legislators here in Washington are beginning to think a little more about the interests of the American people and not so much about the numerous petitioners abroad who have been demanding more and more money as the price of their cooperation with us.

It's not an encouraging thing to see dissension in the ranks here on foreign policy, but it's in Congress and not in the executive branch where the "isolationism" has cropped up. And, of all things, it has emerged in the Democratic party, whose votes have gone to big money for defense of American instead of for defense of American military alliances abroad.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Tucson, Ariz., June 27—Assuming that the Air Force is the only deterrent which keeps the United States safe and peaceful in the same world with Soviet Russia, then no amount that we can pay the men who fly the ships and keep them in shape to fly is too much. I have suggested $10,000 a year exempt from income-tax for technicians and mechanics who re-enlist for a second four-year hitch. For most of their first enlistment they are little better than useless. This is a shock-figure but not extravagant and it gives us a ring in which to fight over the subject. If you suggest $5,000 you waste your breath because many of these people are married and the birth rate is high in this generation.

Five thousand will hold a few men who are nuts about aviation and "the life," and some few others who lack the daring to check out and go into competitive life as employees of civilian industry. But $5,000, with or without the tax-exemption, will not retain an abundance of the best men to be had at any price, here represented by $10,000.

Lt. Gen. Curtis Le May, commanding the big bombers, has said he hasn't enough experts to carry the load of work. So it follows either that the crews face more danger than they should or that the number of ships in shape to fly is curtailed for lack of "service."

There is no sense in appealing to chivalry here.

The men of the air force are typical first-class Americans, but the only real heroes who seek hardship and peril for the fun of it and for their pride in their corps are the marines. A marine does not become a marine for "security" or "frings benefits" or free hospital care when his mother-in-law slips on the soap in the bathtub and busts her hip. The money saved by firing our corps of overseas "foreign aid" almoners, and our parasitic "attaches" for "culture" and "labor," and by pulling out the international labor organization and scrapping the idiotic Central Intelligence Agency would be plenty to do the necessary thing for the air force. Of course, the flying officers will have to be dealt into this, too, because they are up against the same hecklement by the dream girl and the same temptation to sell their services to private industry. Manufacturers and inventors have been saying for three years that the airmen of today are hardly more important to flight than the helmsman to the sailing of a liner. But if it were that simple we would all be flying in B-47's as liners right now whereas the nearest thing to jet transportation for customers is three years off and the airlines are very queasy about the first year.

A Russian Air Force captain gets $765 a month plus tobacco, uniforms and a 50 per cent discount on all he buys in civilian stores. That would be about $10,000 a year. An American captain, if he flies or runs one of the vital jobs of maintenance, should be worth at least twice as much because we count on him to outsmart that Russian. A salary of $25,000 a year for an officer sounds fantastic because that was all Pershing got. But these are relatively two-bit dollars and it isn't so much a question of "shall we spoil them?" as "shall we let the Russians ruin us?"

It is hard to classify the Air Force. It isn't an army and it is just barely military. Its people live miles from their posts of duty and it is overloaded with high-priced miscellany to keep books and hand the post dentist his nut-picks. In the eye of anyone who ever visited a Marine post or a good German command the whole force seems ignorant of that sharp bearing which the British call posh.

At Davis-Monthan, our biggest bomber base, the door of the control office at the main gate was filthy with plain dirt and a military policeman behind the counter had a blue and white brassard in need of soap. Officers accustomed to informal conditions don't notice such things, but the British contended that indiscipline and bravado cost a lot of Australians their lives in France in World War I. Traditional soldiers have strung with that. However well it flies and fine its scientific knowledge, this Air Force maintains a knee-sprung appearance and some of its generals have made boyish brags about it.

New Plane Data

St. Louis (AP) — An aircraft plant report says planes today are vastly different from those in World War 2. A World War 2 fighter required about 7,000 parts. A modern jet needs 25,000. A tolerance of 1/32 of an inch could pass for some parts in a second world war craft, where the modern fighter has to have 1/500 of an inch. And just a scuff on a wing is enough to cause a reduction of 20 miles an hour in speed— a loss that can be fatal to a pilot when he's dog fighting for his life.

Antique Suit

Atkinson, Neb. (AP)—In 1884 when Wayne Warner was 14 his grandfather gave him a silver dollar. Wayne bought a turkey hen. The hen laid 13 eggs and Wayne sold the 13 turkeys for $13. His mother told him to save the money for a new suit, but times got hard and Wayne loaned the money to his mother. She paid it back when Wayne was 18 and Wayne bought his suit. Recently he was 86 and out came the 68-year-old suit for a promenade.

Pulls Panic Button

Grand Rapids, Mich. (AP)—Quick thinking Louis Osworth turned a fire alarm into a panic button for two attackers. Osworth shook off his assailants and pulled the alarm at a nearby box. The pair fled before two fire trucks and a police cruiser rolled up to answer the call.

Will Encourage Ulster Gardeners For Dutchess Fair

Special emphasis will be placed this year on encouraging new gardeners of Ulster county to exhibit in the competitive flower shows at the Dutchess County Fair in Rhinebeck August 24 through 29, Mrs. Marquis Morse said today. She is general chairman for the 1956 event.

"WE PLAN to schedule a variety of horticultural classes as well as many arrangement classifications," said Mrs. Morse. "Anyone who has even a small garden plot can begin now to primp a few choice plants to bring them into bloom at show time. This isn't a show for professionals, but rather for our Hudson valley friends and neighbors who enjoy flowers. I hope we will have many new exhibitors."

Although plans are not yet complete, it is anticipated that there will be three separate shows—two competitive shows open to public participation and a final "invitation" show for the winners of the first two. Increased attention will be given, too, to sections devoted to junior gardeners.

Mrs. Morse said arrangements are being made this year to schedule some type of garden or conservation educational exhibit which will be of interest to all fairgoers.

FLOWER SHOW officials, in cooperation with officers of the Dutchess County Fair, already have been at work to make the flower show building on the fairgrounds more attractive. Locust trees have been planted for shade, while yews have been planted along the foundation for landscaping. A new lawn has been seeded, vines cover the retaining wall, a picket fence has been constructed, and perennial and annual flowers have been planted.

Potential new exhibitors who are interested in learning about the various flower show competitions, classes and prizes, may receive a program by requesting one from Mrs. Morse, at Staatsburg or from Mrs. Joseph Bruyette, Rhinebeck.

Judge Admits He Made Error in Holding Records

Plattsburgh, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—A city judge early today admitted he "was in error" in ordering court records withheld from news representatives.

Supreme Court Justice Andrew W. Ryan today issued an order making permanent a temporary order directing acting City Judge J. Bryan O'Connell to open the records.

Ryan acted on a motion made by the Plattsburgh Press-Republican. The temporary order had been issued Monday.

IN ADDITION to vacating O'Connell's order closing the records, Ryan's order also directed that "docket books pertaining to disposition of matters before the city shall henceforth remain open...except as otherwise provided by law," and that the docket books be maintained on a current basis."

The newspaper said the books had at times been as much as a month behind in their postings.

In his affidavit, O'Connel said: "I now realize that the selection of items deemed newsworthy and in the public interest must be left solely to the editorial policy and judgment of the press itself with their own conscience to be their guide, and not mine."

The Press-Republican obtained a show cause order from Clinton County Judge Sherlock E. Haley Saturday, one day after O'Connell ordered the court records sealed "as long as I am sitting on the bench."

WHEN ASKED by a reporter last week to explain his action, O'Connel said:

"I do not like the practice of making the court appear to be a high1class collection agency."

He described the court's major function as the administration of justice and said he felt the press was neglecting it by overemphasizing money collected by fines.

O'Connell, an attorney and Democratic candidate for Clinton county judge, sat in for City Court Judge Irving Goldman, who was on a two-week tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force Reserve. Goldman returned to his duties Monday.

Widow Coming to U. S.

Washington, June 28 (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed a bill permitting a 22-year-old Japanese widow of an American serviceman to enter this country. Mrs. Rumiko Fujiki Kirkpatrick plans to live with her husband's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hugh Kirkpatrick of Union Springs, Cayuga county, N. Y. Her husband, Airman Paul Kirkpatrick, 22, was killed in the crash of an air force plane at Taiwan March 6, 1955. The widow will bring their infant son, Robert Hugh Kirkpatrick. The elder Kirkpatrick, who is a Methodist minister, and his wife had requested the special legislation. It was introduced by Rep. John Taber (R-N.Y.).

Sign Trade Agreement

Karachi, Pakistan, June 28 (AP)—Western-allied Pakistan and the Soviet Union have signed their first trade agreement. Russian experts came here a month ago to open negotiations as part of the Soviets' new economic drive in southern Asia. The total amount of the trade anticipated was not announced. A joint communique said all payments will be in Pakistani rupees. Pakistan will sell the Soviets jute, cotton, wool, hides and tea. In return she will get industrial and farm equipment, chemical products, metals, oil, timer "and other goods."

Finds Children Suffocated

Dallas, Tex., June 28 (AP)—A mother returned from a part-time job yesterday to find her two small children suffocated in a home freezer. Mrs. Dorothy Jenkins found the bodies of Sandra, 8, and Gregory, 6, after an absence of five hours during which she was working at nearby Grand Prairie. Her husband, George, also was working. Mrs. Jenkins had cleaned the freezer and put the lid up so it could air out. She instructed the children to stay in the house while she was gone, and had tried to phone them from work.

New Events Will Mark Library Fair

Woodstock, June 27 — More entertainment and more fun has been the keynote of Woodstock's traditional Library Fair. Since the first official Fair was held in 1927, the event has become the outstanding social event of the summer season.

Another successful Fair is in the making with the event only a month away, and all indications point toward superior entertainment from the gala weekend in New York (with reservations at the Waldorf, dinner at the Stork Club, and tickets to "My Fair Lady" which is the big feature of "Great Expectations" for 1956.

Further plans were discussed at the recent organizational meeting of the Fair's chairmen. With a trio of ladies in over-all charge, including Mrs. Hans Cohn, Mrs. William Sly, and Mrs. Gordon Taylor, the Fair has been set, as usual, for Thursday, July 26. In the event of rain it will be held Friday, July 27. The Fair grounds open at 12 noon and the Fair will continue to 6 p. m.

A lengthy list of tables, features and attractions has been announced to cater to the hearts of old and young alike. Heads of each individual setup include: Aprons—Ruth Brown and Heloise Marquardt; Art Supplies, Florine Solomon; Badges, Mari Bollman; Balloon Stand, Jules and Carol Viglielmo; Books, Rose Oxhandler; China and Glass, Mrs. Charles Cooper; Clothing, Mrs. Gilbert Schneider; Miscellaneous, Peggy Summers; Flea Market, Inga Herpen; Food, Mrs. Victor Allen and Mrs. Stewart Strickland; Miscellaneous, Mrs. Alexander Semmler and Diana De Rouche; Fruits and Vegetables, Mrs. Inger Walker and Mrs. Charles King; Grounds, George Laws; Hats, Dottie Wolven; Hot Dog Stand, Joseph Forno; Iced tea and sandwiches, Erna Wetstein, Mrs. James Winters, and Mrs. Russell Stephens; Jewelry, Ruth Emerick and Mrs. Harry Temple; Linens, Mrs. Fritz Werner; Music, John Pike; Photography, Zella Pike; Publicity, Tobie Geertsema; Rugs and draperies, Mrs. Eileen Sherwood; Safety, Jay Alan and Al Hoffman; Shoes, Mrs. Berry McCarter and Mrs. Paul Smith; Shopping Bags, Mrs. Anna Nemser and Mrs. John Majoras; Toys, Mrs. Edward Gurland and Mrs. Kermit Schwarz.

As previously announced, Noelle Gillmor, Anita Stallforth and Elsie Goddard will head the Great Expectations event.

From early morning on Fair Day and throughout most of the day, Mrs. Margaret Kenyon will be at the Library desk to answer the phone for any inquiries concerning the Fair.

Named to do the honors as master of ceremonies is Houston Richards, and heading the Midway this year will be Walter Balk and the Boy Scouts. Plans call for each boy to be assisted by an adult and other Scouts, and already definite for the Midway are the Ring Toss, in charge of Jay Van Wagenen; the Walk-A-Plank, headed by Ed Varney; and the Nail-In-Board, under the auspices of Richard Mellert.

A special attraction this year, for the first time, will be the Turnau Opera Players, doing their Children's Opera. Ticket sales for this event are being handled by Isabelle Doughty and Norbert Heermann.

Finally, the Collection Center has been set up under the co-chairmanship of Maude Waterous and Gertrude Robinson, who ask that residents bring donations to the Center behind the Library every Monday from 1 to 5 p. m.

Christian Science Service Sunday

Woodstock, June 28 — Man's God-given right of self-government will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, July 1, at the Woodstock Church, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God."

Gideon's answer to the men of Israel who asked him to rule over them will be included in the readings from the King James Version of the Bible (Judges 8:23): "And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you; the Lord shall rule over you."

The basis of proper self-government will be emphasized in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (106:7): "God has endowed man with the inalienable rights, among which are self-government, reason, and conscience. Man is properly self-governed only when he is guided rightly and governed by his Maker, Divine Truth and Love."

A Christian Science radio program, "Why Prayer Can Heal you," will be broadcast in the Columbia Broadcasting System Radio "Church of the Air" series on Sunday morning, July 1, at 9:30 a. m., over radio station WCBS, 880 kc, in New York city. The speaker will be H. Phelps Gates, circulation manager of The Christian Science Publishing Society. Music will be furnished by a quartet and soloist. The program originates in Boston, and is broadcast on the Columbia Broadcasting System network.

$650 Raised During Opening of Festival

Woodstock, June 28 — The Woodstock Festival of Music and Art was launched Saturday night with an informal musical given at a fund-raising party at the Byrdcliffe Theatre. A fund of $650 was raised during the evening.

The large audience present heard a talk by Dr. James T. Shotwell. The artists heard during the concert were Jan Ruetz, mezzo-soprano; Marvin Snow, basso, each accompanied by Michael Charry at the piano. A 10-year-old violinist, Penny Ambrose, pupil of William Kroll, performed, accompanied by Alexander Semmler at the piano. Naomi Lieberman sang three songs by H. A. Shimmerling, accompanied by the composer at the piano. Jacqueline Freeman, pianist, student of Inez Richards played and Jean Dais, tenor sang with Donald Myers accompanying.

Mr. Semmler also played three pieces from his Manhattan Diary: Bus Ride, On the Avenue and Atomic Savages and two duets were sung by William Werbell, Pamela Munson, Naomi Lieberman with composer, H. S. Shimmerling at the piano. The Finale was from Mozart's The Impressario, sung by Carolyn Chrisman, soprano; Lucille Sullam, soprano; Jeffrey Wolfe, tenor, and Robert Shuster, baritone, accompanied by Michael Charry.

This summer, as part of the Woodstock Festival of Music and Art, a new series of concerts will be inaugurated on alternating Saturday evenings, starting July 7. Outstanding favorite soloists will be presented at the Maverick Concert Hall in instrumental and vocal solo performances.

These solo recitals will complement the Maverick Sunday Afternoon Concerts which, in keeping with tradition, feature performances of chamber music.

Beginning July 7, the Saturday Night Recital Series will successively present recitals by pianist Willard McGregor, eminent exponent of contemporay music; Penny Carlson, popular concert soprano, assisted by composer-pianist Alexander Semmler; the well-known pianist Jacqueline Marcault and the captivating Caroler's Trio. Other events in this series will be announced later.

Mari Gallery Opens With Large Turnout

Woodstock, June 28—The opening of the new Mari Gallery in the Guild of Craftsman building Saturday afternoon was largely attended. Among the new artists represented are Jacques Zucker, Joseph Raskin, Stephen Cusumano, Joseph Flock, Benn, Gerritt Hondius. Among the artists included who are known in Woodstock are Karl Fortess, Herman Oxhandler, Joseph Meert, Sol Wilson, Ernest Fiene, Nuhum Tschabasov, Anna Neagoe. One sculptor Seymour Lipton was represented with a metal piece.

This is one of the finest group shows to be assembled in a local gallery and there was much enthusiastic comment concerning the artists and their excellent work.

Tourneys Are Slated For Local Golf Greens

Woodstock, June 28 — Ladies' Day at the Woodstock Country Club is scheduled for each Tuesday in June through September 18. Tournaments will be on a nine hole basis except for the monthly Trophy Tournament and the Invitational. Participants are asked to tee off no later than 10 a. m.

The schedule of tournaments is as follows: June 5—Callaway System; June 12—Dutchess Invitational; June 19 — Mystery Tournament (count putts); June 26—Trophy Tournament; July 3—Flag Tournament; July 10—Handicap Medal Play; July 17—Invitational (Callaway); July 24—Poker Tournament; July 31—Trophy Tournament; Aug. 7—Pick Your Handicap; Aug. 14—Member-Guest; Aug. 21—Two Ball Foursome; Aug. 28 — Trophy Tournament; Sept. 4—Throw Out Tournament; Sept. 11—Beat and Pro; Sept. 18—Blind Hole Tournament.

This year there will be three divisions in the Monthly Ringer Tournament—Class A, B, and C. The score board is posted at the entrance of the club house.

All those competing are asked to please turn in all their score cards. The Club Championship qualifying rounds (18 holes) may be played from July 30 to Aug. 3. If anyone plays on July 31, this will be their qualifying round. Everyone is asked to notify the pro when they go out. First Round Matches are from Aug. 6 to 10, Semi-finals, Aug. 13 to 17; Finals, Saturday afternoon Aug. 25.

Artists Will Appear At Exhibit June 30

Woodstock, June 28—Members of the Woodstock Artists Association have arranged to demonstrate their skills, personal techniques, and the results of their broad experience at a demonstration exhibition to be held Saturday, June 30, from 2:30 to 6 p. m. at the Art Gallery. Both painters and sculptors will take part in the program, among them Doris Lee, Arnold Blanch, Fletcher Martin, Arthur Zaidenburg, Pat Collins, Lucille Blanch, Howard Mandel, Ben Johnson, Sigmund Menkes, Cecile Forman, painters and Jim Turnbull who will use wires and planes to create a mobile, while Edward Chavez will produce metal sculpture. Twelve different procedures will be in progress at the same time. Each artist will have his own work space and materials while examples of finished work will be on exhibit. Two models will also be present. This is a rare opportunity to discover twelve different approaches by outstanding artists in the field of art.

The program has been planned to help increase the Woodstock Artists Association Fund through which the Gallery is maintained and operated and which also assists in the welfare of the individual artists. Therefore on Saturday only, an admission fee of two dollars will be charged to all except the active members of the Woodstock Artists Association who will be admitted for one dollar. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon to create a "break" in the intense program.

Those who witness the development of a work of art on Saturday may covet one of the pieces and therefore will be given an opportunity to place a sealed bid on the completed work. The bidder who tops the minimum price placed by the artist may carry the work home at the end of the exhibition, which is July 5.

Village Notes

Woodstock, June 28—The annual picnic of Kingston Model Railroad Club, Inc., was held at the Henry Eighmey home at Shady, Sunday, June 24. Attended by many members and their families, they enjoyed a picnic supper, softball game and pitched horseshoes.

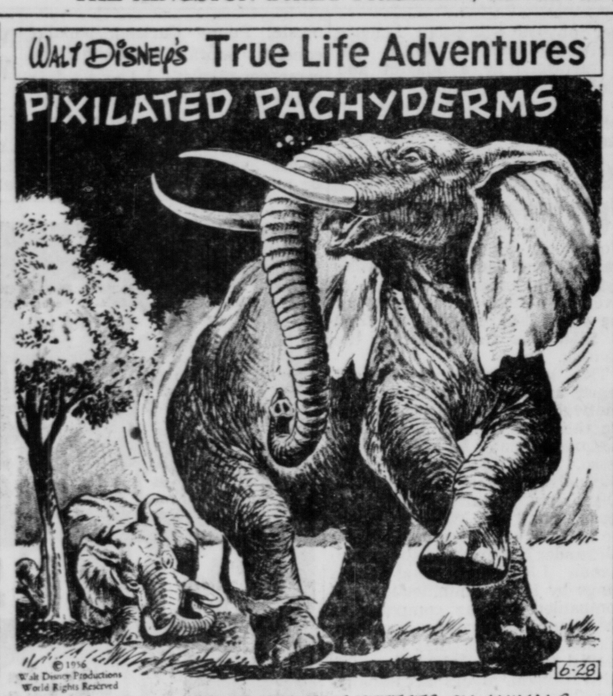
Cyril Simon, director of the Woodstock Playhouse, gave a get-acquainted supper party for members of the cast of "Tea and Sympathy" and "The Mousetrap," Monday night. Among those present were Michaele Myers, Fran Malis, Billy James, Dana White, James Reese, Carroll Howe, Gerald McGonagill, William Carr, business manager, Mildred Bruce, Zev Putterman, stage manager, Jacquelyn Adair, assistant stage manager, Constance Putterman and Muriel Fisher who is doing a picture story for the New York World-Telegram, which has chosen the Woodstock Playhouse as a typical summer stock theatre with a resident company, and Mrs. Norma Champanier, publicity director for the Playhouse.

An exhibition of drawings is on view during the week of June 24 through 30, at the new Zena Gallery over the Nook. The exhibit includes works by Lillian Lent, Frank Alexander, Annick DuCharme, Robert Angeloch, Roy Barth, Richard Crist, Fatiana Padwa, Lynfield Ott, David Ruff, Gladys Brodsky and Philis Sife. Later in the season there will be a number of smaller group shows in which three or four of the group will exhibit at a time. The next show opening Sunday, July 1, will be a full group show of paintings, to be followed on July 7 by the first one-man show of the season to be announced later.

Woodstock artist, Josef Presser will be at the Indian Hill Music Workshop, Stockbridge, Mass., during July and August. A camp for boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 18, it features courses in music and art. Mr. Presser will have charge of the art department and the designing of sets for their productions. The camp opens this weekend with a conference for the instructors and Mrs. Presser (Agnes Hart, Woodstock artist) will accompany him for the event. Both Mr. Presser and his wife are members of the Woodstock Artists Association.

The WSCS of the Woodstock Methodist Church will hold a food sale Saturday, July 21, at 9:30 a. m., next to the Woodstock Colonial Pharmacy. The annual fair date has also been set for August 16.

The Polari Gallery of New York city announces the opening of a new gallery at Parnassus Square, opening with a one-man show of oils, drawings and prints by Mari Blumeneau, Sunday, July 1. The show will be on view through July 13. The gallery will be open from 12 noon to 6 p. m., on weekdays and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 7 to 9 p. m. The new gallery is under the direction of M. Edgar Rosenblum.



Weight Reduction?

Omaha (AP)—A clerk in the Omaha Post Office weighed a letter for a woman patron, handed it back with the comment, it was too heavy and would need another stamp. "Well," shrugged the woman, "how will putting another stamp on it make it lighter?"

Trains Must Continue In Northern New York

Albany, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—The Public Service Commission today ordered the New York Central railroad to continue current service in northern New York pending hearings on the railroad's plan to drop 11 trains.

The commission directed the Central to carry on existing operations through October 19.

The PSC scheduled public hearings for July 12 in Ogdensburg and July 27 in Lowville (both starting at 10 a. m.).

The railroad informed the commission last week that it intended to discontinue 11 trains of the St. Lawrence Division effective July 22. The Central said the move was an economy measure prompted by steadily declining patronage on the trains.

Since the railroad announced its proposal, the commission said, the PSC received "many complaints from public officials, and business, civic and fraternal organizations in the affected area.

B&M Plan

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., June 28 (AP) — Patrick B. McGinnis, president of the Boston & Maine Railroad, says the line will work with state and local officials in a proposed industrial development program. The board of directors discussed potential New York State sites at a meeting here yesterday. The session was the first that the B&M had held in New York in its 124-year history. McGinnis said it was his policy to hold board meetings "in the territory." The president said no decisions were reached at yesterday's meeting. He said that "it will be our policy to work together with state and municipal authorities for industrial development along the railroad."

Turn to Merger

Washington, June 28 (AP)—House antitrust investigators turned their attention today to the American Broadcasting Co.-Paramount merger. Chairman Celler (D-N.Y.) of the antitrust subcommitee said the group has drawn no advance conclusion about this combination in the entertainment field which was arranged several years ago. As part of its study of regulated industries, he said, the subcommittee is interested in finding out whether the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is "fully alert" to its "inescapable antitrust responsibility."

Serve Chuck Wagon Fare For Fourth of July Thrill

AROMATIC, SIZZLING grilled steaks and hamburgers for small fry both came from same economy chuck steak.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

For your Fourth of July cookout, how does this sound to you?

Chuck Wagon

Get a 2-inch steak and have the butcher cut out the fillet that surrounds the small bone. The remainder is properly ground for chopped meat. We put both steak and hamburgers on the grill at the same time. Then the youngsters who never seem to be able to wait, get first serving while the steak is still being cooked. A 6-pound chuck steak will give you a 2½-pound fillet and about 3 pounds of hamburger. This will serve 6 adults and 6 children nicely — even very hungry ones.

Steak Sandwiches
(Makes 12 servings)

One quarter cup salad oil, ¼ cup wine vinegar or red wine, ⅛ teaspoon oregano, ⅛ teaspoon thyme, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 medium onion, sliced, 1 clove garlic, minced, 2½ pounds chuck fillet, 2 inches thick, 2 teaspoons kitchen bouquet, 12 frankfurter rolls.

Combine all ingredients except the kitchen bouquet and cover the steak with the marinade. Allow to stand overnight or at room temperature for several hours. Drain. Brush on both sides with kitchen bouquet. Broil over moderate heat for 15 minutes on each side. Remove to platter or board and slice diagonally into thin slices, about ⅛-inch thick. Serve over toasted frankfurter buns.

Hamburgers
(Makes 12 hamburgers)

Three pounds ground chuck, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon rosemary, 12 hamburger rolls.

Combine meat and seasonings and form into patties. Broil hamburgers over moderate heat for 8 minutes. Turn and broil for 8 minutes longer. Serve on toasted picnic buns.

TOMORROW'S COOK-OUT DINNER: Steak sandwiches and hamburgers, corn-on-cob, buttered rolls, dill pickles, whole tomatoes, fresh fruit, chocolate brownies, coffee, iced tea, milk.

New Hurley

New Hurley, June 27—Three young people from New Hurley Church left here Sunday afternoon to attend the Oakwood Youth Conference at Poughkeepsie. They are Viola DePew, David and Jonathan Wilkin.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a food sale at the church hall Tuesday, July 3 from 2 to 6 p. m.

There will be regular preaching services in the New Hurley Church Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday school at the church hall at 10 a. m. with classes for all ages. There was a large attendance at the church service Sunday to welcome the new minister. The Classis of Orange will ordain Harvey W. Noorday to the ministry of the Word of God and install him as minister of the New Hurley Reformed Church, July 8, at 8 p. m. in the New Hurley Reformed Church. All are invited to attend these services.

The annual church fair of the New Hurley Guild will be held at the church hall Saturday night July 21.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grant were visitors at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant in Halden, N. J., Thursday.

Mrs. John A. Thurston of Newark, N. J., is spending the summer at her home in this place. Mrs. Robert Bennett of Union, N. J. accompanied her here.

Mrs. Irving Barr of Middletown called at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Noorsdy moved from New Brunswick, N. J. into the New Hurley parsonage Wednesday.

Diane Margaret Lent of New Paltz spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denniston.

Union Center

Union Center, June 27—The following students received graduation gifts during the closing exercises of the local school: John Guido, Leslie Litts, Karl Tienken and Jo Ann Yack. Leslie Litts also received the good citizenship award.

The Civic Group will again sponsor the library hour. The first meeting will be held July 12 at 7 p. m. All children in grades three to six are invited.

Den 1 will have its weekly meeting at the home of Michael Boomhower. The following week the group will meet at the home of William Daum.

News of Our Own Service Folks

RICHARD PARADIES, seaman apprentice, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. Richard Vitarius, Sunset drive, Port Ewen, has recently completed nine weeks of recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md.

The local sailor is spending a 14-day leave with his parents prior to reporting to the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Va.

He is a former student at Kingston High School and enlisted through the local recruiting station, room 209, Central Post Office for a four year period.

DONALD EAST, airman, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert East, 37 Furnace street, has recently graduated from the Navy's Aviation Photographic School at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. Following a 10-day leave Airman East will report to Norfolk, Va., for duty in the Naval Air Station photo lab. The local navy man enlisted in August 1955 through the local recruiting station, room 209, Central Post Office. He enlisted under the Navy's High School Training Program and chose aviation photography as his career field. A high school graduate has his choice of a school in the field of aviation, electronics, hospital corps or the general technical specialties, depending upon his qualifications. Airman East is a 1955 graduate of Kingston High School.

STEPHEN A. TRESALONI JR., who enlisted March 28 in the U. S. Marine Corps, is currently on leave for 10 days after completing the 12 weeks "boot camp" at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C. While in recruit training he was indoctrinated in the many and varied subjects that are necessary in the making of a Marine, such at tactics, weapons, first aid and drill. Upon completion of the 10-day leave he will be transferred to the advanced infrantry training at Camp Lejeune, N. C., for a period of about four weeks. He will then be transferred to Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, at Camp Lejeune, N. C. At present he will be ordered to the forces serving in the Mediterranean for a period of six months, during which time he will visit many countries and participate in landing exercises on foreign soil.

Cootie Elections Held for State

Elmira, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Richard J. Albertson of New York is the new commander of the Grand Pup Tent of New York, Military Order of the Cootie, the social organization of the New York State Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Albertson was elected to succeed Francis Savio of Albany.

Other officers elected at the organization's 37th annual meeting were: Ray Thornton of Binghamton, senior vice commander, and Glenn Swinehart, Syracuse, junior vice commander.

Ruth O'Brien of Troy was elected Grand Grayback of the Grand Cottiette Club of New York State to succeed Cora Haffner of Newburgh.

The meetings preceded a three-day VFW convention, which opened here today.

94,200 Seek Raise

Akron, Ohio, June 28 (AP)—The United Rubber Works Union has opened negotiations with the rubber industry, seeking wage boosts for about 94,200 workers across the country. A spokesman for the union said no announcement of the union's demands will be made until the first contract is signed, probably not for several weeks at least. The deadline is August 14, as the union gave the industry two months notice on wage re-openers on June 14.

Lester to Testify

Buffalo, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Business promoter Harry Lester will testify in his own defense when his Federal Court trial on a 13-count fraud indictment is resumed next Monday. Lester's attorneys announced that the 42-year-old defendant would take the stand after the government rested its case yesterday. The trial was recessed again because of other commitments by the court. Judge Justin C. Morgan denied motions by the defense that the indictment be dismissed on grounds of insufficient proof. Lester, whose real name is Hyman Trugman, was charged with using the mails, telephone and telegraph to defraud more than 12 victims of $143,989.45.

Eggs in Bag a Hit

Ithaca, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Eggs sold in transparent, plastic containers rather than the usual shell are a hit with housewives here. In first-day sales at a local market, 69 dozen shellless eggs were sold at 57 cents a dozen, compared with 20 dozen regular eggs at 59 cents. The plastic-coated egges are joined into a 12-unit package for sale purposes. Prof. L. H. Darrah of Cornell University, who developed the idea, said first-day sales yesterday were far better than he had expected. He said the eggs could be sold cheaper because costs of candling and breakage were eliminated.

In 1941, Congress specified that Thanksgiving Day annually fall on the fourth Thursday of November.

Kansas City Hit Hard by Winds; Man Electrocuted

Kansas City, June 28 (AP)—A violent thunderstorm with gusts of wind up to a record 115 MPH struck the Kansas City area yesterday causing one death and leaving a wide trail of damage to homes, shrubbery, trees and other property in its wake. The rainfall amounted to .57 of an inch.

John T. Jones, 37, was electrocuted when he stepped from his automobile and touched a power line felled by the wind a block from his home.

At least 200 high voltage lines were blown down and more than 300 maintenance men worked through the night to restore service.

Tree limbs littered residential streets. There were numerous reports of lightning striking homes and starting fires, all of which were quickly extinguished.

Four light aircraft at the municipal airport were bowled over and two other parked planes were jammed together, damaging their wings.

Several advertising signs were blown down and show windows shattered.

Troy Man Indicted

Troy, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Daniel Slivko, 36, has been indicted on a first-degree murder charge in the June 2 shooting of a doctor who had treated him for a nervous condition. The Rensselaer county grand jury returned the indictment. It charged that Slivko had killed Dr. Boris Klassons, 43, of Nassau, at the Slivko home in nearby Schodack.

K of P Elects Goldberg

Monticello, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Louis A. Goldberg, a Buffalo public accountant, is the new grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of New York state. Goldberg, elected yesterday at the fraternal order's 88th annual state convention, succeeds Samuel Schnitzer of New York city.

Sawkill

Sawkill, June 27—The Sawkill Mothers' Club held their regular monthly meeting in June at the schoolhouse. Election of officers resulted in the reelection of Mrs. Thomas Malone to the presidency and Mrs. Kenneth Dolan, secretary. Mrs. John Duffy was elected vice president to succeed Mrs. J. Brooks and Mrs. James Tyler, treasurer to succeed Mrs. William McGinnis. Plans were discussed at the June meeting for the end of school picnic. On June 21, a large group of the members had dinner at Judies Restaurant and Miss Goldpaugh, teacher, was a surprise guest-of honor. She was presented with a gift and corsage by the Mothetrs' Club. The Mothers' Club will hold their next meeting in the fall.

The end of school picnic was held at the Sawkill firehouse Wednesday, June 20. All pupils and pre-schoolers were invited to attend. Following a program of games, refreshmens were served to the children by the refreshment committee of the Mothers' Club. In September, Marguerite Joy, Arlene Wesch and William Karbow will enter the Myron J. Michael junior high school and Laura Joy, Michael Walker, Charles Winne, Robert Whispell, and Linda Whispell will enter the fifth grade at School 8 in Kingston. Grades kindergarten through fourth will be enrolled at the local school.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Sawkill Fire Company, held its regular monthly meeting at the firehouse in June. Plans were discussed for the annual picnic which usually is held on the July 4 weekend. This year, the picnic will be on June 30. The Auxiliary will sponsor a fancy work booth, and also have children's toys. Another meeting of the Auxiliary will be held June 27 at which time all members are requested to bring the articles which they will donate. Final plans will also be made at this meeting

The Sawkill Fire Company has had several meetings this month while making plans for the June 30 picnic and also other business of the organization.

The Board of Trustees, School District 1, will hold their final monthly meeting this week. The new board of trustees, elected at the regular annual school May meeting, will meet with the retiring board this month as they did in May. The new board members are George Leedecke, for a term of three years to succeed Mrs. Michael Haggerty, John Duffy for a term of two years to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Francis Joy who resigned, and Mrs. Thomas Malone, for a term of one year, to fill out the unexpired term of one year of Raymond Walker, who resigned. George Leedecke will be the chairman of the new school board.

There will be a card party Tuesday, July 3, at St. Ann's Hall, sponsored by the United Societies of St. Ann's Church, Sawkill, and St. Wendelin's Church, Ruby. A bus will leave from the Crown Street Terminal in Kingston at 7:30 p. m. The card party will be at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

South's Bid Misleading

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

There was no value in South's bid of three spades on a moth-eaten five-card suit. South should raise to three no-trump, and North would take nine tricks without a struggle.

When South mentioned the spades, North was happy to raise. If South meant to try for a slam, North would go along with him; and if South had a long spade suit and merely wanted the safest game contract, that was all right too.

West opened the nine of hearts, and dummy won with the ace. South got to his hand with the jack of clubs to lead a trump. West played low, and East topped dummy's jack with the king.

East could see that his side could get no tricks in diamonds or clubs. Since four tricks in hearts and spades were needed, East took the king of hearts and then led the queen of hearts.

South ruffed the third heart in his own hand and led another trump towards dummy, but he could not save the day. West stepped up with the ace of spades and led a fourth round of hearts. East's ten of spades could not be shut out and the game contract was defeated.

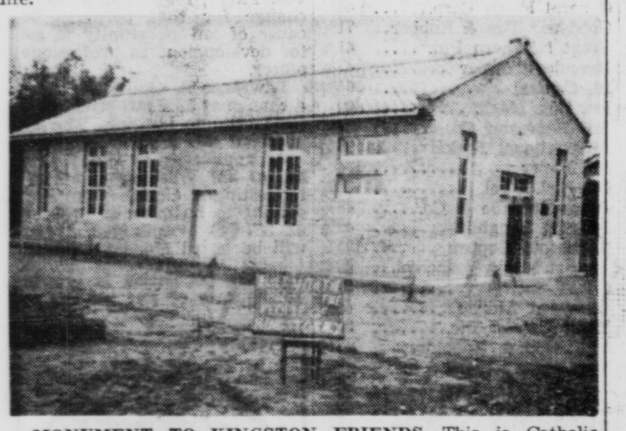
Father Drew's Church on Formosa Gives City Part in Faith Program

HELPING THYROID VICTIMS—Father John Drew, MM, at one of the Maryknoll clinics on Formosa. Here he is preparing goiter medicine to combat the thyroid disease which affects one woman in every five and one man in every 15 in this area.

SCHOOL FOR REFUGEE CHILDREN—Father Drew's kindergarten and playground cares for children of refugees from Red China. One of the main problems facing these people is unemployment. In order for them not to become a burden on the community the parents must work to provide a home and the necessities of life.



MONUMENT TO KINGSTON FRIENDS—This is Catholic church built on tiny island of Fen Yaun, Formosa, with help of contributions from Kingston friends of Father John Drew, 100 miles from Red China mainland.

Fen Yaun, Formosa — Kingston's generosity is well represented and respected here on this tiny island just 100 miles from the Red mainland and this Formosan city now has its own church, contributions for which were raised by Kingston residents in tribute to a former parish priest in their city.

Father John J. Drew, of New York city, a former assistant at St. Mary's Church, Kingston, alone at a new mission without a church and remembering the kindness of Kingston residents appealed to his former neighbors and friends. The appeal was answered.

A COMMITTEE, headed by former Mayor William F. Edelmuth, made an appeal for public subscriptions in Kingston in 1954. St. Mary's Holy Name Society also raised funds to provide Father Drew with a jeep for his parish work on the island.

Father Drew was ordained to the priesthood in 1942 by His Emminence Francis Cardinal Spellman in St. Patrick's Cathedral and received his first assignment to St. Mary's Church. He spent the next four years in that parish and became an active member of the Knights of Columbus and other organizations. He also became very attached to Kingston and its residents.

AFTER FOUR YEARS of diocesan work the husky young priest asked for, and received, permission from his superiors to enter the Maryknoll Fathers for work in the foreign missions. On his first assignment he was sent to Kongmoon in South China. Later he worked on historic Sancian Island, the site of St. Francis Xavier's death nearly 400 years ago. In 1951 the Communists seized the mission and Father Drewe was expelled. Maryknoll superiors immediately reassigned him to Formosa.

Thus, after 14 years, Father Drew, alone at a new mission without a church and remembering the kindness of the people of Kingston, appealed to his former neighbors and friends.

A FEW LETTERS to the famed city at the gateway to the Catskills brought amazing results. Through their kindness and co-operation, Father Drew has been able to build a fine chapel.

Despite the international tension surrounding the island today, the work of Father Drew and the other missioners among the thousands of refugees, who have flooded this small island continues. Although only one-quarter the size of New York state, Formosa has a population of eight-and-a-half million people.

THE PREFECTURE of Taichung which is entrusted to the Maryknoll Fathers has a population of 230,000 people among whom are 8,300 Catholics.

The New York missioner's usual day consists of saying Mass, administering the Sacraments and working at the Maryknoll clinics which provides treatment for over 120,000 goiter patients a year. In this area, one woman in every five and one man in fifteen suffer from the thyroid ailment.

WHEN THE MISSION first started its goiter program, 260 patients came the first week, 500 the second and more than 1,000 the third. The number grew until it reached a peak of 5,000. It has since decreased, because other missions in the area have started giving treatment, but the clinic still averages about 1,500 patients a week.

"The people here in Fen Yuan are very grateful to the people back in Kingston for the charity they have shown" reports Father Drew, "the priest in charge is grateful; and we're all sure that God is grateful to those who made the means available for building a Tabernacle here on earth to His greater honor and glory.

"Lets hope a little bit of Kingston will always remain on this tiny island 10,000 miles away."

Truman polishes his microphone technique as he addresses the American Club of Paris, France. Truman will speak after the convention, which opens Aug. 13, selects its presidential candidate.

Talks About Homes

Washington, June 28 (AP)—An editor told a meeting of home economists today that a home owner faces two big questions when he considers remodeling—neighborhood values and financing possibilities. Mrs. Maxine Livingston, family home editor of Parents' Magazine, said that once a householder is satisfied area values will hold up and that he can finance the remodeling, he still must decide whether the modernization work is practical and will provide the amount and kind of space wanted. "We need to conserve our good houses, to rehabilitate those which have felt the touch of blight, to eliminate the rock bottom slums which have deteriorated beyond hope of reclamation," she said. "To do this, it takes the interest of every individual."

Key West, Fla. (AP)—The race between William Freeman and Paul Mesa for Monroe county supervisor of registration was not decided until the last vote was counted. The machine count showed Freeman had 3,184 votes and Mesa 3,182, Mesa received 147 absentee votes and Freeman 146, giving Freeman the office, 3,330 to 3,329.

Briggs Blasts Players Then Hies to Florida

Detroit, June 28 (AP)—Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, Jr., a millionaire's son who is trying to peddle the baseball club he inherited, found himself in the middle of a raging controversey today after his scathing attacks on Detroit Tiger players, their managers and coaches.

The Associated Press learned that one of the coaches, former New York Yankee great Joe Gordon, may resign. The others, Billy Hitchcock, and Jack Tighe, were "disturbed" about the public criticism by the Tiger president.

The club lost to Washington yesterday, 3-1, and now has gone 11 games without a victory.

A SOLID choice for fifth place in the preseason polls, the Tigers are in sixth and only 2½ games ahead of the seventh place Senators.

Briggs' blasts started several days ago, and first it was Manager Bucky Harris who was blamed for the club's worst slump since 1953. The 44-year-old president also had comments about the players, saying they were not hustling.

Then he took off with his wife for a brief vacation in Florida, causing one high Tiger official to comment, "That was the best hit-and-run play of the season. First he hit us, then he ran."

Harris, now in his 29th season as a big league manager and his second tour with the Tigers, had no comment on Briggs' criticism.

The players were more concerned with finding a way to win.

Although the United States produced only 10 per cent of the dyes it used in 1914, it is self-sufficient today.

NOT MINERS, NOT SAILORS—Boatload of life-jacketed men above are not sailors. Nor are they miners, wearing their safety lamps as they set forth on a seagoing holiday. They are steel construction workers employed on the Mackinac Bridge, which will link upper and lower peninsulas of Michigan sometime in 1957. Life vests are required for overwater trip to the job and for safety when working over or near the water. Lamps are used when working in interior of the four 552-foot-tall bridge towers.

Area Opposition Is Noted To Difficult Regents Exam

Protests of a number of educators throughout the state that the regents examination in chemistry was too difficult is also reflected in two of three area schools checked today by The Freeman.

An Associated Press dispatch from Albany reported that numerous high failure percentages in the examination had been reported. One formal complaint has been filed with the regents and others are anticipated, according to the wire story.

Kingston High School and Onteora Central School reported high percentages of failure. Saugerties Central School, however, showed 16 passing out of 17 who took the examination.

OF 136 STUDENTS who took the examination at Kingston High School, 73 passed and 63 failed—a failure percentage of 53.7.

The previous low at KHS was in 1946 when 63 per cent failed the chemistry examination.

Only four of 12 students at Onteora Central School passed the examination.

PRINCIPLE John Moehle told The Freeman he didn't know whether a formal protest would be filed or not but that he doubted it. He called attenion to the fact that the regents examinations are made out each year by high school teachers.

Superintendent Grant D. Morse of the Saugerties Central School said 16 of 17 passed with "uniformly good results."

The highest grade was 92, he said. Others were 90, 88, 88, 87, 86 and 81.

STATE AVERAGES of students passing the chemistry examination were 65.4 per cent in 1945, 89.2 per cent in 1950 and 77.8 per cent in 1955.

Mrs. Sylvia K. Beranek, science teacher at Van Etten Central School in Chemung county, has filed the only reported formal complaint.

She said last night that she had sent a protest to the regents. Nine of 21 students failed at her school, a failure rate of 43 per cent.

Jack R. Terry, principal of the Thomas A. Edison High School at Elmira Heights said he would also file a complaint. Twenty-eight of 35 students, or 80 per cent, flunked the test at his school, Terry said.

Carl S. Paige, principal of Rome Free Academy, a public high school, was the first person known to have publicly complained of the test. He said yesterday that he planned to send a "criticism" to the State Education Department. About half of the 92 pupils who took the examination at his school failed it.

BUT THE percentages of failure varied widely from school to school.

At the Roman Catholic Notre Dame High School in Elmira, two of 24 students failed, a rate of 8 per cent.

School authorities said 81 of 16 students in the Elmira area had flunked the chemistry test. That is a failure incidence of 26 per cent.

In the Syracuse area, 167 of 420 pupils who took the test flunked it. The rate there was nearly 40 per cent.

A veteran Syracuse science teacher said the test had been "fair." He said there was nothing in it that hadn's been covered in classes.

Samuel Schenberg, New York city high school science supervisor, said that the examination was harder than in previous years.

At Cortland High School, a spokesman said that 6 of 63 had flunked, a 10 per cent failure rate.

Area Methodist Churches Plan Music Services

The Olive Bridge, Samsonville, and Vly Methodist Churches will have special attractions at all services Sunday, July 15. Word has been received that the Silvernote Brass Ensemble, made up of musicians from the nationally famous Philadelphia Salvation Army Band, will play at Samsonville Church 9:30 a. m.; Olive Bridge Church 11 a. m. and in the afternoon at The Vly.

Everyone is invited to hear this band and to join in the worship services. Olive Bridge Church, at noon on this day, invites everyone to a church dinner at the home of Mrs. Carrie Davis, on Krumville road, about three-fourths of a mile from Davis Corners. The Silvernotes will play just before dinner, which will be served about 1:15 p. m.

Samsonville Church invites all to join in an old-fashioned country Fourth of July celebration with games, refreshments and a band concert. Special entertainment is planned in the hall during the evening. Everything except ice cream and soft drinks will be on a donation basis. The effort is to make this an old-fashioned family social gathering without commercialization, the committee announced. Starting time is 1:30 p. m. The band will play about 2:30 and picnic supper will be served by the WSCS. A free-will offering will be received.

Continued before Official Referee Christopher J. Heffernan at the Court House today was the trial of some 50 actions brought by property owners along the Plattekill creek, town of Saugerties, who contend they have been deprived of water rights. They contend the village reservoir impounds the water of the creek to such an extent they are deprived of use of the water in dry seasons. Referee Heffernan announced he would continue the hearing today and Friday.

Senate Vote Is Uncertain for Veterans Pension

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Prospects seemed dim today for Senate action on a house-passed pension bill with a special $90-a-month provision for World War 1 veterans.

PROPOSALS for bigger payments to service-disabled veterans and to veterans' widows and dependents were stripped from the measure during a turbulent session yesterday in which the House passed it and sent it to the Senate by a 364-51 rollcall vote.

Sen. Byrd (D.-Va.), whose Finance Committee handles veterans' bills in the Senate, said his group will consider the pension bill "as soon as we can find a time to take it up."

But Byrd noted in an interview that the Senate Committee already has a long list of items requiring its attention. This late in the session a major bill usually stands small chance of becoming law unless it is already well advanced.

BYRD ADDED that the committee may decide to hold hearings on the legislation. Congress is hoping to adjourn within a few weeks.

Chairman Olin E. Teague of the House Veterans Affairs Committee said the stripped-down bill as passed by the House would cost 356 million dollars the first year.

It would raise to $75 a month the present $66.15 non-service-connected pension for veterans rated permanently and totally disabled, and to $90 a month the present $78.75 pension for such veterans who have reached age 65 or who have been on the pension rolls for 10 continuous years. A 10 per cent premium would be added for overseas service of 30 days or more. The pensions would go only to veterans whose yearly incomes are below the present legal ceilings —$1,400 if single or $2,700 with dependents.

Gordon Quits Tigers

Detroit, June 28 (AP)—Joe Gordon quit today as first base coach of the Detroit Tigers, and the club's president, Walter O. Briggs Jr. said he "is sorry for the way I have acted in this whole matter." Briggs, who has been critical of Tiger personnel in the club's worst losing streak since 1953, was reached by telephone in Lake Wales, Fla. "This whole thing is my fault," said Briggs. "I popped off and I am sorry. If I were up there (in Detroit), I would ask Joe to stay on."

Modena

Modena, June 28—Servings of the smorgasbord at Hasbrouck Memorial Hall Saturday will be at 6 and 8 p. m. Members of the hall committee are sponsoring the supper for the benefit of the hall with Emmett Hyatt of Clintondale as general chairman.

The subject "God and Country" will be chosen by the Rev. John E. Swords at regular worship services in the Modena and Clintondale Methodist Churches Sunday, July 1. The Rev. Mr. Swords will attend a meeting of Clintondale Official Board on Tuesday, July 3 at 8 p. m. at the church.

The first game in the softball league with players of the subdistrict Methodist Youth Fellowship, was played at Modena on Thursday, Clintondale vs. Modena. Other games scheduled are Plattekill vs. Clintondale, at Plattekill, Modena vs. Highland at Modena on Tuesday, July 5; Fostertown vs. Clintondale at Fostertown; New Paltz vs. Modena, at Mondena, July 11.

The fair and portion supper will be held Friday, July 6 at Clintondale Methodist Church at 6:30.

The annual Plattekill Grange chicken barbecue will be held Saturday July 14, at the Grange Hall. Servings will be at 5:30 and 7 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from all Grange officers or by calling Ira Merwin or Burton R. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Smith of Gardiner, became the parents of a son, Daniel Jeffrey, on June 14. Mr. Smith, a teacher in the Highland School, is a former resident of Modena.

Esopus Approves Taking Land for Fire District

The town board of the town of Esopus, following a public hearing last evenings, approved unanimously the annexing of a portion of the township adjoining the town of New Paltz and the more inhabited section of the town adjacent to West Esopus in the existing Rifton Fire District. Added to the Rifton district will be that portion from Perrine's bridge to the New Paltz line and the area easterly through the mountain to the Loughran Lane, new West Esopus.

Following approval of the proposed extension of the district by the town board, the proposal will be submitted to the State Department of Audit and Control and the Comptroller's office for approval and then to the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for approval.

There was no opposition expressed at the public hearing.

TRUCK LOSES BODY—This is how a Miron Lumber Co. dump truck looked after a collision with the railroad bridge at the Broadway underpass this week. A police report said a faulty hydraulic lift raised the body as the vehicle was driven under the span and it was sheared from its chassis by the impact. (Photo Workshop).

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 28 (AP)—The stock market turned mixed and more active early this afternoon.

Prices of leading stocks fluctuated within a range of around a point.

Earlier the market was declining as steels led the downtrend after failure to reach a strike-averting compromise. The steels improved a little, although they were still lower, after it was announced negotiations would resume this afternoon.

Opposition Given

sume it is residentially classified at the time of purchased and would later discover it is not.

Attorney Abraham Streifer, representing the Strelene Reality Corp. told the hearing it was necessary to add a parcel of land to the cement company property similar to a zoning change of December, 1955.

HE SAID the land was needed for the following reasons:

1. The company needs additional river frontage for docking facilities.
2. The company want a railroad spur from the Kingston Point area to the plant and
3. The company wants the complete Step Rocks cliff.

NO CHANGES are contemplated for the location of the plant, he said, and it would remain at its proposed site.

Attorney William A. Kaercher, who said he represened a Fifth War citizens' committee and also the Cordts Realty Co., asked whether the additional land would create more dust and more danger in that area.

THE QUESTION of whether a railroad operating in the area would create a noise problem was raised also.

Augustus Parker, of 73 Crane street, said he favored approval of the application because he felt the cement plant would offer more employment opportunities.

UNOPPOSED was an application by Minnie B. Post, of 202 Fair street, requesting a zoning change for that porperty because of an opportunity to sell for development as professional offices.

Lawrence A. Quilty requested a change at 58 Pearl street from residential to business. The application was also unopposed.

An application by Harry Teetsel, of 337 Washington avenue, requesting a change from residential to business of property at 337-343 Washington avenue will be heard Monday evening.

India's population is growing at the rate of five million per year.

Jaycees Calling On AAU to Meet New Conditions

Kansas City, June 28 (AP)—The U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce wants American athletes to be given "reasonable and open" rewards for their prowess, even if it means organization of a rival to the Amateur Athletic Union.

The Jaycees' national convention yesterday adopted a resolution calling on the AAU "to meet the changed conditions of modern competition and redraft its regulations so that the dedicated athlete may be reasonably and openly rewarded for his efforts."

SHOULD THE AAU fail to do this, the resolution said, "we wholeheartedly approve and sanction any other organization which may propose to regulate amateur sports within the spirit of this resolution."

The Jaycees contribute to the AAU on local levels and participate in fund-raising for the U. S. competition in the Olympics.

Delegates today turned to the prime business of their week-long convention—election of national officers.

There are 3,046 accredited votes.

The Jaycees had four candidates to choose from for president and 17 for the 10 vice presidential posts. The new officers will be installed tonight.

CANDIDATES for the $15,000 a year presidency were Jack P. Barnes, Portsmouth, Va.; Robert L. Cook, Springfield, Ill.; Wendell H. Ford, Owensboro, Ky.; and Michael F. Maloney, Fayetteville, Ark. Barnes is Virginia state president, the others are outgoing national vice presidents.

Hugh F. McKenna of Omaha, outgoing president, yesterday was presented a 14-foot outboard motor boat and a check for more than $1,000 by the convention.

Each presidential candidate spoke for five minutes, then was given a nine-minute demonstration by his supporters.

THE JAYCEES also passed resolutions urging "non service connected veterans' programs be retained only to meet minimum needs"; endorsing the report of the second Hoover commission on streamlining the government; urging nationwide prayers July 4 "for the success of our country in the role of world leadership"; urging designation of April 30 as President's Day, and favoring continued support of reductions of federal loans and grants-in-aid to states.

The convention, in effect, closes tonight after an inaugural ball in the municipal auditorium.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday the executive committee and board of directors have scheduled meetings.

Flight Is Postponed

Moscow, June 28 (AP)—Red faced British air officials rescheduled a courtesy flight of ttheir Comet jet airliner for Soviet air officials today after the pride of the British airways failed to get off the ground. Some 30 Soviet air force officers, technicians and officials of Aeroflot, the state operated Soviet airline, turned out at Vnukova airport for a ride in the gleaming silvery airliner. They piled into the plane, the doors slammed shut and the minutes started ticking by. Forty-five minutes later the embarrassed British air crew advised the guests the flight had been postponed until this afternoon.

Shepilov in Athens

Athens, Greece, June 28 (AP)—Russia's Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov flew into Athens today to begin a two-day "unofficial" visit to Greece. He will talk with Premier Constantine Karamanlis and Foreign Minister Evanghelos Averoff. Karamanlis is expected to tell Shepilov that Greece welimproved relations and increased trade with the Soviet Union, but will do nothing to weaken its ties with NATO and the West.

Train Hits Auto, Six Persons Die

Hamilton, Ohio, June 28 (AP) — A Pennsylvania railroad freight struck a car at a grade crossing near here early today, grinding the car to bit and killing all six occupants of the car —three men and three women.

TRAIN CONDUCTOR P. H. Conley of Richmond, Ind., said it looked as though the car didn't slow at all before the train engine smacked into it.

Butler county coroner Garrett Boone identified the three men killed as James Nease (age not available), Franklin, Ohio; Jerry Stidham, 30, Wolf Coal, Ky., and Claude Raleigh, 38, of Miamisburgh, Ohio.

The coroner was unable to identify the women immediately. He said one had a tattoo, "Leona" on her left arm.

THE THREE MEN and two of the women died in the crash. The sixth victim died in Mercy Hospital here at 2:45 a. m., a little over an hour after the crash.

The sheriff's office said the southbound freight dragged the car about 200 feet along the right of way before the car swung around and "got tangled up" with a freight car.

The crossing is at Williamsdale, about five miles north of this southwestern Ohio city.

Farm Workers Strike

Rome, June 28 (AP)—Farm workers belonging to all major unions went on strike throughout Italy today. In most areas they were scheduled to be out only 24 hours, seeking higher pay and greater fringe benefits. In the Po valley, however, the strike was called for an indefinite period.

Ike's Approval Is Expected for U. S., Red Visits

Washington, June 28 (AP) — President Eisenhower is due to approve soon a "positive" policy for exchanges of visits between the United States and Russia.

OFFICIALS SAID the proposed policy statement, now reported agreed on in the administration, would provide for the United States to propose some exchanges with Russia as well as to react to Soviet proposals for visits.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference yesterday that the problem of East-West exchanges "is coming up within the next few days, perhaps, for final decision through the National Security Council and the President, which will help us firm our position."

"The kind of policy the United States should have has been knotted in controversy, principally among the State, Defense and Justice Departments, for several months. According to some reports the Justice Department has not been enthusiastic about permitting a large number of Soviet visitors to come to the United States.

HOWEVER, the State Department and such presidential advisers as Harold Stassen, Eisenhower's disarmament expert, have agreed that the United States could not afford to erect an "iron curtain" of its own against visitors from the Soviet Union.

With the policy debate in progress, the State Department and White House have been generally limited to responses to Soviet bids for more visits between the two countries.

RUSSIA TOOK the initiative several weeks ago, for example, in inviting Gen. Nathan F. Twining, air force chief, to go to Moscow for an aviation day celebration.

Officials said the new policy would provide for "positive action" by the United States on a basis of reciprocal treatment. The basic idea is that as the Russians open up their country to American visitors the United States is prepared to welcome Soviet visitors.

Dulles said that each case will have to be decided on its own merits, but that "fairly clear principles and guidelines will, I hope, be laid down within the next few days."

Safe, Sane and Sensible

Quincy, Mass. (AP)—Delcevare King, 81, who has been driving autos since the days they were called horseless carriages, has never had an accident in all those years. The Quincy banker, who is an ardent promoter of highway safety, has two rules for avoiding traffic smash ups: "Don't speed. Don't drink."

Fragrant Advertising

Longview, Tex. (AP) — A helicopter pilot gave a local barbecue stand some good advertising On a flight over the city, the 'copter suddenly faltered, then sat down on a vacant lot near the cafe. "I smelled that hickory smoke up there and just couldn't resist it," the pilot said as he climbed upon a stool.

GOP'S HEAVY ARTILLERY — Named by Republican Arrangements Committee to preside at GOP's nominating convention in San Francisco beginning Aug. 20 are, from left: Sen. William F. Knowland (Calif), temporary chairman; Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass), permanent chairman; Sen. Prescott Bush (Conn), chairman, resolutions committee.

Six-Year Budget Recommended for Missouri Synod

St. Paul, June 28 (AP)—The Missouri Synod Lutheran convention here has recommended a six-year $113,110,700 budget.

The long-range budget proposal passed unanimously late yesterday in the form of a recommendation to the church's fiscal conference. It covers the years 1957 through 1962.

THE CONFERENCE which is expected to meet this summer in St. Louis is the body which actually will set up the budget.

The total, broken down to yearly allocations, represents an increase each year of some 10 per cent over the previous year. Synod membership has been growing at a 4 per cent rate annually.

The convention recommended the budget after the Rev. John Herrmann, St. Louis, reported the Synod had added 635,000 new communicants in the past 10 years and has entered 12 additional countries since World War 2.

DELEGATES also voted to petition executive and legislative branches of the government to "abolish the present compulsory attendance of its military personnel at divine services." The resolution called this practice at West Point and some basic training centers "contrary to the true American spirit."

The convention also established 20 new professorships and assistant professorships for five of its colleges and a seminary. Boards of directors were also appointed for several of the colleges.

Theatre Rodeo

Detroit (AP)—Four traffic policemen were hastily called on for rodeo duty when Sadie, a normally placid mare, stampeded at the Norwest Theatre. Sadie was being led down the theatre aisle to publicize a film. But the slippery floor and the yelling youngsters proved too much. Both Sadie and the children were on the verge of panic before the police arrived for the roundup.

SHEAR PLEASURE—Barber-turned-gardener John Weakley trims Leon Wright's shrubbery at Berrien Springs, Mich., during the city's 125th anniversary celebration. Weakley is due for his clipping on the Saturday night which marks the end of the week-long celebration. He's agreed to uncover the bewhiskered citizenry—for free.

Junking the Alphabet

Cambridge, Mass. (AP) — The alphabet is as outdated as a horse car, says Edward Allen Loomis who has designed a new semaphore alphabet that he claims "anyone with intelligence can learn in 10 minutes." The LMS (Loomis Modern System) uses lines instead of letters. The LMS characters look like a cross between hieroglphics and semaphore signal positions. "It copies no nation's alphabet and is easily written and understood by all peoples," he said.

Miners Found Alive

Gifu, Japan, June 28 (AP)—Five coal miners, given up for dead after a cave-in Sunday, were found alive today. Collapsing timbers in the Yamato mine formed a safety pocket in which the miners huddled more than 100 hours awaiting rescue. They were rushed to a hospital for treatment.

Wilson Denies He'll Quit Post

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson returned last night from a short vacation in Canada and, professing puzzlement that such a question was asked, said he has no intention of resigning.

THEN, OBVIOUSLY referring to the fire aimed at him in recent days by Senate critics, he told newsmen:

"The price of progress is trouble and I must be making a lot of progress."

The last time he used this phrase, when a round of Army-Air Force bickering broke out last month, he said the trouble he then noted was "too much."

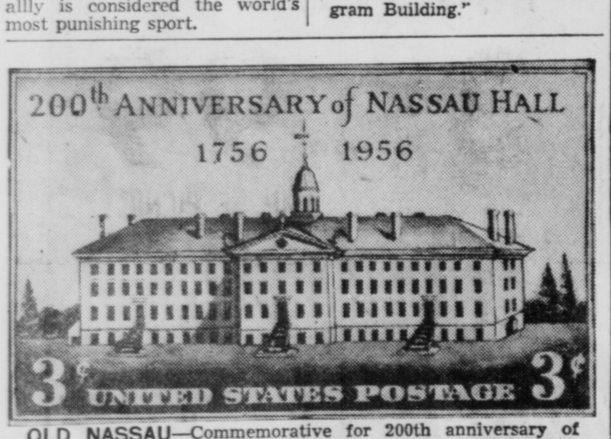
Some Senate Democrats called for Wilson's resignation after he used the word "phony" last week in discussing with newsmen senatorial moves to increase the Air Force budget. Saying later that he was misunderstood, Wilson asserted he didn't mean to apply the word to senators.

AS HE stepped from a plane last night, waiting reporters asked Wilson if he intended to resign.

"I don't know why you bring up the question," he replied. "No, of course not. Why should I?"

Jai-alai, a game demanding much speed and stamina, generallly is considered the world's most punishing sport.

"SUPER" ART—New York City artists work on a block-long mural, their canvas the construction fence surrounding site of a 38-story skyscraper now under construction. Scene will be changed with the seasons until the building is completed. Billed as the world's first bronze-clad skyscraper, it's to be known as the "Seagram Building."



OLD NASSAU—Commemorative for 200th anniversary of Princeton's Nassau Hall will be placed on sale at Princeton, N.J., Sept. 22. Black on orange, design is from photo of the Dawkins engraving of 1764.

Some skirts are short and some are long, indicating that woman will go to any lengths to keep in style.

Why We Say--

OLD TRICK: When you give away a secret, you "let the cat out of the bag" The expression goes back to country fairs where baby pigs were often auctioned off. The little pigs were given to the buyer already wrapped in bags. But sharpsters sometimes substituted a cat for the pig. Thus, anyone giving away this secret, "let the cat out of the bag."

A teacher called on little Oscar, and said,

Teacher—Tell me what you know about George Washington. Was he a soldier or a sailor?

Oscar—I think he was a soldier.

Teacher—Why do you think he was a soldier?

Oscar—I saw a picture of him when he crossed the Delaware. A sailor would know enough not to stand up in a row boat.

private contract transportation by district-owned buses.

UNDER THE SECOND plan all transportation in 1961-62 would be provided by district-owned vehicles, except that some transportation may still be provided by public service. The district may wish to discontinue public service transportation thereafter.

The report suggests that under the second plan one or more bus garages be constructed, and two mechanics, or one mechanic and a driver-mechanic, be employed.

OF THE 24 DISTRICTS outside the city of Kingston, 20 are currently operating elementary schools, according to the report. These schools have an enrollment of 1,400 children in kindergarten and Grades 1-6 and 150 children in Grades 7-8. Their teaching staff consists of 58 teachers. Some of the outside schools have special service teachers. The entire outside area has two art teachers, two music teachers, one physical education teacher and two homemaking teachers.

The city of Kingston has 477 children attending half-day kindergartens under the supervision of 11 kindergarten teachers. In Grades 1-6 there are 2,494 children receiving instruction from 88 class room teachers. Special services include 1.5 art teachers, three music teachers, two physical education teachers, one librarian, three special class teachers, five speech teachers and one homemaking teacher.

In the combined area there are 174.2 teachers for 4,521 children for a pupil teacher ratio of 25.8 children. The entire district now employs 1.5 elementary school supervisors and eight elementary school principals.

DURING THE first year several new buildings will be in operation under the report. Children in Grades 7-8 will be included in the secondary school program.

The district will operate kindergartens on a full-day basis in the rural areas and on a half-days basis in the city. Seventeen teachers will provide kindergarten instruction for 714 kindergarten children. In Grades 1-6 a total of 4,681 children will receive instruction from 167 teachers. Special services will include six art teachers, six music teachers, six physical education teachers, three librarians, five special class teachers and one speech correctionist.

A TOTAL of 211 teachers will provide instruction for 5,395 children for a pupil teacher ratio of 25.5 children. This district will also employ a director of elementary education and 11 elementary school principals.

It is expected that kindergartens will continue to operate on a half-day basis in the city and on a full-day basis in the outside area in 1961-62. Kindergarten enrollment is expected at 830 children and 23 kindergarten teachers will be employed. In Grades 1-6 a total of 5,439 children will receive instruction from 202 teachers. Special services will include 10 art teachers, 10 music teachers, 10 physical education teachers, five librarians, eight special class teachers and two speech correctionists.

A total of 270 teachers would provide instruction in 1961-62 for 6,269 children for a pupil-teacher ratio of 23.2 children. The district will also employ a director for elementary education, a language arts supervisor and 11 elementary school principals.

THE KINGSTON secondary schools are now providing instruction for the major portion of secondary school pupils in the proposed area of consolidation.

The secondary system now enrolls approximately 2,800 pupils in Grades 7-12, for which 110 teachers are assigned for instruction. The pupil-teacher ratio is 25.5. In addition to these pupils enrolled in Kingston there are 150 attending several of the branch schools of the proposed district. For inventory purposes there pupils have been included in the elementary school inventories. Instruction in the special areas of art, music and physical education for these schools is obtained through a Board of Cooperative Educational Services.

DURING THE first year of the plan it would be possible through a redistribution of pupils to enroll all pupils in Grades 7-12 in Kingston. It is expected that 3,055 pupils will be enrolled requiring 143.5 teachers for instruction. The pupil-teacher ratio will be approximately 21.2.

It will be possible in the first year to increase instructional services in several areas particularly the special areas. Personnel has been planned with instruction continuing to be provided in vocational education in the same manner as in the current year (1956-57).

Administrative and other service personnel have been assigned to meet the demands of an increasing enrollment and an expanded program.

IN THE YEAR 1961-62 on the secondary level, enrollments are expected to reach 4,241 pupils in Grades 7-12. It will be necessary to increase instructional personnel to 184 teachers in order to meet the demands of increased enrollments. The pupil-teacher ratio will be 23.

Superintendent Soper explained in his remarks that the study had been made to ascertain whether the school districts were interested in such a program.

IF A DISTRICT is interested petitions must then be circulated asking the New York State commissioner of education to lay out a Greater Kingston School District—upon which it becomes a legal entity.

If more than 50 per cent of the taxpayers in the area vote in favor of the proposition it becomes a reality. The Kingston Board of Education must also accept consolidation and the state approve.

Some of the trustees raised the question whether a district could be forced into consolidation by the state.

IT WAS EXPLAINED by Superintendants Soper, Bennet and Johnson that the percentage of signatures guides the decision of the commissioner of education. However, this decision is based in general on what is good, educationally for the entire consolidation area.

For instance, one school district, as now constituted, might vote in favor of consolidation by only 20 or 30 per cent, whereas in another district the vote might be as high as 90 per cent. Some discretion must be left to the commissioner of education in deciding whether or not the district voting only 20 or 30 per cent for the plan shall be includer or not.

It was explained that the State Education Department opposed leaving "islands" within the area of a proposed consolidation. For instance, in the recent vote for centralization in Saugerties one so-called island of some 400 taxpayers disapproved of consolidation but were included in the program anyway for the best interests of education in the entire area, according to the state interpretation of these interests.

Superintendent Soper explained that one of the bases of decision was the matter of a secondary school. If a school district opposing consolidation has no secondary facilities it is the feeling of the commissioner of education, in general, that such a district should become part of a larger unit.

Superintendent Soper agreed that the commissioner has "tremendous authority."

THE QUESTION of membership on the board of education in the Kingston consolidation was raised.

Mr. Soper explained that at present there are nine members of the board, the size of which can be changed but which cannot exceed its present number. Terms are for five years with two expiring each year—except in one year the term of only one member expires.

WHEN THE TERMS of the next two members of the board expired they would be replaced with two persons elected from the entire consolidation area. It is a "transition thing," Mr Soper said.

Election districts would be set up for the area with polling places probably located in the seven districts which would have school buildings.

A PETITION could be circulated in favor of a particular candidate. Such a petition must show at least 100 signatures. His name would then appear on the ballot, with others, all arranged in alphabetical order. Voters would cast ballots for two people, the two with the highest number of votes being elected. Votes from all seven of the districts would be lumped in one pot for the count.

There is no limit to the number of candidates who can be placed on a ballot.

IT WAS POINTED out by the superintendents that the program could not become a reality until the people of the proposed district petitioned for consolidation.

President Robert Herzog of the Kingston Board of Education made it clear that the board was uncommitted on the question of consolidation—neither for nor against.

HE EXPLAINED that the board had not initiated the consolidation study and had reached no decision on the question but was studying the plan along with the 24 districts outside the city. The city was not trying to pressure the outlying districts into the enlarged district, he stated emphatically.

Under the proposed consolidation, pupils in smaller schools in the outlying districts would be sent to a larger neighboring school in one of the seven districts heretofore mentioned, it was pointed out.

EACH SITE for new school construction would be selected by the Greater Kingston District Board of Education but it must also be approved by the State Education Department.

Mr. Herzog told the trustees that Kingston High School was already overcrowded but would be able to take the rural pupil load for three or four years with its present plant.

Jung Released; Was Injured in Fatal Air Crash

Frank Jung, 26, of Hicksville, L. I., who was critically injured in the crash of a Piper Cub plane at Kingston Airport June 13, was discharged this morning from Albany Hospital.

Mr. Jung, severely injured in the crash which took the life of Kenneth O. Pratt, 14 Smith avenue, will return to his home today.

Mr. Jung was reported at the time to have suffered a fracture of the skull and multiple facial fractures. He was treated at Kingston Hospital and then transferred to Albany.

Witnesses reported that the light two-seater plane, owned by Mr. Jung, crashed shortly after takeoff from an altitude of approximately 250 feet.

The engine was heard to sputter and the pilot banked to the left apparently in an attempt to return to the field.

Assault Hearing Tonight

At 7 o'clock this evening an examination will be held before Justice Millard Davis of the town of Ulster in the assault charge which was lodged against Henri Rethier, 51, owner of Les Pommiers at Lake Katrine. Ernest Gruber, 52, who operates the Oak Grove Motel on Route 9W at Lake Katrine who charges a gun carried by Rethier was discharged in a scuffle between the two men. He charged there was a dispute over signs pointing directions to Les Pommiers. The gun allegedly went off twice. Rethier was arrested by state police on an assault charge and later admitted to bail pending the hearing this evening.

Glasco Attorney Seeks Saugerties B of E Position

Louis P. Francello, attorney of Glasco and former Saugerties Mayor George P. Holmes filed nominating petitions today for positions on the Saugerties Board of Education with Mrs. Margaret B. Marburger, clerk of Saugerties Central Schools.

Mr. Francello filed for the position now held by Mrs. Mary Lasher of Saxton whose term expires. Mr. Holmes filed for reelection to the position he now holds on the board.

THE ELECTION for three vacancies on the Board for three year terms is scheduled Wednesday, July 11 from 12 noon to 10 p. m., in the high school building on Main street.

Kenneth Beadle, Main street pharmacist has also filed for the position held by Mr. Holmes.

The deadline for the filing of petitions is 5 o'clock and at 1 p. m., Ernest E. Schirmer who had filed for reelection to his position was unopposed.

The positions sought by Holmes, Beadle and Schirmer are two of the four posts on the board representing the village. The position held by Mrs. Lasher and sought by Mr. Francello is representing an area embracing West Saugerties, Saxton, Manorville, Quarryville, Katsbaan and Cedar Grove.

Whittier to Have TV Antenna For Over 2½ Million Dollars

Construction of a two-and-a-half million dollar master television antenna system at the Whittier housing development in the Flatbush area was announced today by the Jerrold Electronics Corporation of Philadelphia, Pa.

Contract has been signed with Masterplanned, Inc., Whittier developers, it was announced.

Construction of a 100-foot tower will begin in the near future with all television cable laid underground, it was reported.

Daniel Aaron, advertising director of Jerrold Electronics, said today that approximately 100 miles of cable would be laid ultimately from the tower to some 4,000 homes which Whittier expects to erect in the miniature Flatbush city.

Construction is proceeding in the development with approximately 100 homes already sold, it is reported. Model homes at the site may be inspected.

Mr. Aaron said there would be a television outlet in each home. All the viewer has to do is plug the television antenna lead into a wall outlet and he can pull in five New York city stations—CBS, NBC, ABC and Channels 9 and 11, according to Mr. Aaron.

Mr. Aaron explained that a rather weak television signal would be received at the tower but that costly, highly specialized electronics equipment would amplify it 100,000 times.

A two-week signal survey in the Kingston area has just been completed by Jerrold.

Mr. Aaron said the Whittier development would be the first in the nation to install such a master system.

Jerrold Electronics has wired approximately 300 cities with a similar master system. These cities are located in so-called "fringe" areas where television reception is weak. Mr. Aaron said Williamsport, Pa., Key West, Fla., Dubuque, Iowa and Pocatello, Idaho, were among these cities.

Site for the proposed tower has not been seleeted but several are reportedly under consideration in the vicinity of the development. The tower, of steel construction, would be located near the river where the signal is naturally stronger.

Several Jerrold technicians would live in the Kingston area in order to service the television system, Mr. Aaron told The Freeman.

Whittier favors eliminaion of the "rooftop jungle" and the danger of falling antennae in storms, high winds, etc., it was reported. The reception would also be of superior quality.

The contract was signed with Howard B. Kreitsek, president of Masterplanned, Inc.

Hurt in Collision

A five-year-old Kingston boy was injured at 11:35 a. m. today when he was in collision with a car on Abbey street, police reported. Garry Menzel, 5, of Colonial Gardens, suffered a head injury and received treatment at Kingston Hospital, the report said. Ernst R. Kirchner, 34, of 59 Abbey street, reported to police that he was driving his 1955 coupe east on Abbey street when the boy ran into the side of the car.

Nixon Accepts Bid For Viet Nam Visit

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Vice President Nixon has accepted an invitation to visit Saigon in the new southeast Asian republic of Viet Nam early next month.

The White House, in making the announcement of the trip, said President Eisenhower is "delighted" that Nixon was able to accept. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Nixon.

The trip will be Nixon's second tour of the Far East since he became vice president. The first trip, an extensive one, was made in 1955.

Nixon will first go to Manila, the capital of the Philippines, to attend Independence Day ceremonies July 4. He will then proceed to Saigon for a two-day visit.

Weekly Food Review

(By the Associated Press)

Many corner grocers and big supermarkets this weekend offer hams and chickens at special prices, appealing to the housewife shopping for the Fourth of July holiday.

Both meats are hot weather favorites, since they can be served cold as well as hot and are popular for picnics and summer outings. They head the lists of weekend specials in most food stores across the country. Turkeys are another widely featured special.

THE DECLINE in wholesale prices of pork and lamb in recent weeks is now reflected in lower retail prices for these two meats in many sections. Some areas also report lower beef prices.

The beef, pork and lamb wholesale market was generally firm this week and in some areas prices recovered almost as much as they had lost in the past few weeks. Unless there is renewed price weakness, an increase in retail prices can be expected.

Coffee-drinking became more expensive this week when a number of big grocery chains raised prices 3 to 4 cents a pound. In New York retailers now charge about $1.10 a pound for coffee in vacuum cans that last summer cost only 87 cents.

VEGETABLES from local farms in practically all sections of the country are bringing prices down. Cabbage, lettuce, radishes and green onions are generally outstanding buys. Some sections also have squash, beets and cauliflower.

Among good buys are beans, escarole, cucumbers and peas from local growers. Asparagus is also generally moderately priced, although the crop is about over in most sections and much that comes to market now is from storage. Carrots are also listed as a good buy by government produce experts.

Potato prices remain relatively high. Onions from Texas and western states are slightly cheaper as nearby crops come on the market in most big consumer areas.

THE COST OF summer fruits is coming down but they are still rated as moderately high by government observers. In this category are peaches, cantaloupes, nectarines, grapes, apricots, and plums. Most of these must be shipped from southern and western growing areas.

Prices for California cherries went down slightly with the arrival of a few early cherries from nearby orchards.

Although they vary widely in quality and condition, strawberries are generally moderately priced and are the only fruit really in season for central and northern sections of the country.

To test whether a syrup is at the hard-crack stage, drop half a teaspoon of it in cold water. If the syrup separates into hard brittle threads it's at the specified stage.

Tillson

Tillson, June 28—A strawberry festival and baked ham supper will be held tonight at 6 o'clock at the Friends Church, rain or shine.

Regular Christian Endeavor Society services will be held at the Friends Church Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. At the last meeting, Thomas Rowe and Judith Clark were in charge of devotions, and the subject of discussion was "Can Miracles Outlaw God?" Following the devotional services, David Mollenhauer and Erick Constant showed movies taken at the New York State Christian Endeavor Society Convention held recently at Watervliet.

Robert Vertullo, on leave from his Air Force base in North Carolina, is spending a few days here.

Be sure also to print the first letter of your last name in the box provided. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight August 6, 1956, and must be received no later than August 20, 1956. Mail all entries to: "The Trickster", Box 91, Cincinnati 1, Ohio.

2. You may submit as many solutions to this puzzle as you desire, using official entry blanks. With each entry send a boxtop from any size bottle of JOY (if you have one) or a facsimile copied from any source—OR enclose a separate sheet of paper on which you have copied the number from the bottom of any size JOY can, which now may be seen at your store. In this ad are pictures of the New Milder JOY bottle carton and can.

3. Carefully study the clues before writing your answers. The right solution requires the most appropriate and suitable word in each blank. The judges will determine which word is the most appropriate and suitable to the clue in each case. The judges have been appointed by Procter & Gamble to consider all entries and select the prize winner. Decisions of the judges are final.

4. Procter & Gamble will pay $32,000 for the right solution to this puzzle. If no correct solution is received, the most nearly correct solution, based on the number of correct words, will be the winner. One prize will be awarded.

In the event of ties, a separate "Trickster" puzzle and sentence for completion, "Joy makes dishwashing almost nice because . . . (25 words or less . . . ", will be mailed to those who have tied. No JOY boxtop or can number will be required with a tie-breaking entry. Entries in the tie-breaking contest will be judged on the basis of the puzzle. In the event of ties, the prize money will be paid to the tying entrant whose sentence for completion is judged most apt, original and sincere.

5. Entries limited to residents of the continental United States (including Alaska) and Hawaii, except employees of Procter & Gamble, its advertising agencies, and their families. Government regulations apply.

6. All entries become unqualifiedly the property of Procter & Gamble for any and all purposes. No entries returned. Except for incidental, uncompensated help from family and friends, entries must be wholly the work of the person in whose name the entry is submitted, and will be disqualified for outside professional or compensated help. Mechanically reproduced facsimiles or numbers are ineligible. The winner or tying entrants will be notified by mail about 8 weeks after all entries are received.

CLUES ON JOY TO HELP YOU WIN

Procter & Gamble's new JOY is the liquid that makes dishwashing—no, not fun—but almost nice. Takes the greasy smell and look and feel out of dishwater. Gets the job over quick, leaves your dishes sparkling clean. And it's milder than any other leading liquid—gentle to your hands. JOY saves you money, too. Penny for penny it does more dishes than anything else. Just one capful makes nice-smelling suds billow up. You try it. Get JOY today in the nice new can or the gay bottle.

Water Problem

Malone, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Eldred McDonald, whose house straddles the village line has posed a problem for the town board. He asked whether he should pay the $22 rural water rate, or the $11 village rate. "Your taps are outside the village, so you should pay the rural rate," Mayor Edward Skowyra ruled. "Yes, but I water my lawn and garden inside the village," McDonald said. The board is studying the matter.

180 New Polio Cases Reported

Washington, June 28 (AP)—The U. S. Public Health Service said today 180 new cases of polio were reported last week, exactly the same as the previous week.

Ordinarily the number of persons stricken rises steadily during the height of the polio season, from June until late August or September.

A HEALTH service spokesman, emphasizing the evidence indicates Salk polio vaccine is "extremely effective" among inoculated persons, said it is still too early to forecast the polio trend for the year among the entire population.

So far 72,865,569 doses of vaccine have been distributed.

AMONG THE 180 cases reported last week, 94 were paralytic. The total compared with 277 in the corresponding week of 1955 and a 1951-55 median of 419—the same number listed for the week in the 1952 record year.

The health service reported a total of 1,332 cases through the current disease year, which began about April 1, and 2,399 for the calendar year to June 23. Comparable figures for 1955 were 2,310 and 3,373. In 1952, when the sharp jump did not occur until July, they were 1,776 and 3,094.

Among the states, Texas reported the most cases, 37. That was four higher than the preceding week. California dropped one, to 36, while Louisiana declined from 22 to 15 and Florida from 11 to 8. Illinois went up one, to 10.

Clean Exhaust Fan

Sometime when you are looking for something to do, remove the cover from the kitchen exhaust fan and remove the deposits of grease from the fan blades. These heavy deposits decrease the efficiency of the fan.

Check Motors

It's a good idea to check electric motors from time to time to be sure they aren't overheating. Overheating is usually caused by lack of oil at the points required, the belt being too tight between motor and the unit it operates and dirt clogging the vent holes in the motor casing.

2,500 Battling 150 Forest Fires

Albuquerque, N. M., June 28 (AP)—Forest service officials and an army of 2,500 men fought an unprecedented rash of about 150 fires in the southwest region, Arizona and New Mexico, today.

As they did, they apprehensively watched lightning dart from scattered storm clouds over the vast area. Most of the fires they already were trying to control were caused by lightning and ranged from less than one acre to 4,800 acres.

"THIS IS undoubtedly the worst time we've had in region history," said M. H. Davis, assistant forester of the two-state region. "Our people are getting very fatigued. Fires are breaking out almost faster than we can keep abreast. When I flew back from Arizona yesterday, I spotted two more fires. It's getting a little on the hectic side."

The largest was a 4,800-acres fire on Graham Mountain, south of Safford, Ariz. The blaze broke out two weeks ago and brought under control a few days ago. Then, late yesterday, wind up to 60 miles an hour fanned it wild again. Davis said it is very difficult to handle because it is in "some of Arizona's roughest country."

Try adding chunks of tuna to a tossed green salad and serve as a main course for lunch. Slices of radish or pimiento strips will add color.

Albany, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—Ernest C. Young has been named manager of personnel of the Delaware and Hudson Railroads.

The road also announced yesterday that Reginald C. Hover had been appointed superintendent of police.

Both men are from Albany. Young succeeds Charles House, retired, and Hover replaces Howard W. Hooghkerk, also retired.

Rochester, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—The Humane Society here is in desperate need of a pied piper for cats.

The society took in 875 cats during May.

"A female cat has an average of three or four litters of kittens a year, with at least two female kittens in each litter," said E. Raymond Naramore, executive director of the society. "If all of them live and produce kittens in six months, at the end of two years, this single female cat will have produced about 2,000 cats."

The beaver is the largest North American rodent and one of the most valuable furbearers.

Promise Speedy Action

Heidelberg, Germany, June 28 (AP)—America's top representatives in Germany have promised speedy action to reduce friction between U. S. servicemen and German residents. West German officials have charged that troublemaking by allied troops has increased rapidly this year. Allied officials denied such an increase, but said steps are being taken to assure proper conduct by troops stationed in Germany. Gen. H. I. Hodes, U. S. Army commander-in-chief in Europe, issued a statement saying "prompt and effective corrective action" is being taken wherever necessary.

HST Ends Vacation

Southampton, England, June 28 (AP)—Harry S. Truman ended his European vacation today and said the people of western Europe are definitely friendly to the United States. The former American President told reporters aboard the liner United States that he had found the people of western Europe "generally happy, and their countries are prosperous." A British reporter suggested that the good economic conditions Truman had seen were due to the Marshall plan which he sponsored.

Most of Nation Has Pleasant Weather

(By The Associated Press)

There were a few wet spots but generally dry and pleasant weather prevailed in most of the nation today.

Precipitation early this morning was confined to three general areas. Light showers fell in sections of the Great Lakes Region; showers and thunderstorms hit parts of Folrida and in a belt from Colorado and New Mexico eastward to Missouri and Arkansas.

Stormy weather was reported yesterday in eastern Kansas and western Missouri. Wind gusts were recorded at 115 M.P.H. at Kansas City, Kan., and at 80 MPH at Topeka, Kan. One man was killed and several other persons injured in the wind and rain storm which struck Kansas City, Mo. Storm damage, mostly from falling trees, was reported the worst in 10 years.

Cooler and drier air extended from the Dakotas southward through Oklahoma and Louisana and eastward to the Atlantic coast. Biggest cooling was in the upper Great Lakes region, with early morning temperatures about 10 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier.

Although most man-made fibers come from oil or coal, some are made from corn or from minerals (glass).

Boys' State Names Negro Governor

Hamilton, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—The 965 teen-age boys attending Empire Boys State have elected a negro governor.

Robert F. Bostick, 17, of Saratoga Springs was the first nonwhite elected to the post in the 19-year history of the annual program.

The boys state project is sponsored by the American Legion as a lesson in practical political science.

Bostick, as the nominee of the Federalist party, defeated Stanley Panosian of Elmira, candidate for the Nationalist party, which had called in its platform for "strict enforcement of civil-rights laws."

The Federalist platform called for an increase in teachers' salaries and more state aid to schools.

Bostick appointed Panosian secretary of state.

Also elected were: Robert Craft Jr. of Scarsdale, Nationalist, -lieutenant governor; Jerry Grossman of the Bronx, Federalist, comptroller; and Thomas J. O'Brien of the Bronx, Nationalist, attorney general.

Elected judges of the Court of Appeals were John Kim of Staten Island, Philip Cottone of Garden city, David Eckerman of Kenmore, Marcello Tino of Binghamton and Joseph Martinak of Endicott.

The week-long meeting at Colgate ends Saturday.

Are Given Blood Test

Roxbury, Conn., June 28 (AP)—Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller have been given blood tests—requirement in Connecticut before issuance of a marriage license. The tests were made in hasty fashion yesterday. Miller's cousin, Morton Miller, rushed to the State Bureau of Laboratories with two vials containing the couple's blood and picked up the reports of the test (called the Wasserman test) two hours later.

GRANDMA BROWN'S HOME BAKED BEANS

Summertime is picnic time, when the family takes to the hills, beaches, camps—or just the backyard barbecue grill. It's the time that adds extra zest and goodness to all kinds of foods in the picnic basket.

One favorite that goes with just about any food in that basket is Grandma Brown's Home-Baked Beans—the real old-fashioned, country-style beans — slow simmered, and then open-pan baked just as you would in your own home. Served hot or cold, Grandma Brown's Beans are truly different and delicious.

However you like them, make sure you bring them on that next trip to the great outdoors. Out there, appetites are really keen — just like Grandma Brown's Home-Baked Beans.

And don't forget — Grandma Brown's famous bean sandwiches are a delicious addition to any picnic.

Ida Marchetti Weds Eugene Merigliano In Double Ring Ceremony at St. Joseph's

MR. AND MRS. EUGENE MERIGLIANO (Ed Nitsch photo)

Miss Ida Marchetti, daughter of Mrs. Domenica Marchetti of 101 Green street, was wed to Eugene Merigliano of 52 Maiden Lane, son of Chief Warrant Officer Joseph Merigliano, Aberdeen, Md., Sunday, June 17, at 2 p. m. in St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. Alfred Glancy performed the ceremony.

White carnations decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ulisse V. Marchetti of Hurley. She wore a chapel sweep pure Dupionni silk gown with an embroidered Alecon lace insert in a tucked bodice. A tiara of seeded pearls and sequins held a fingertip veil. Miss Marchetti carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Ellen Marchetti was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a peach ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of carnations.

Frank Fodero, cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man. Serving as ushers were Ernest Ward of 52 Maiden Lane and Frank Faluotico of 369 Washington avenue.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Alpine in Rosendale for approximately 125 guests.

Miss Marchetti is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Ellenville High School and attended RCA Institute in New York. He served with the U. S. Air Force for four years and is employed as a film director by Station WKNY-TV.

For her wedding trip South, the bride chose a tangerine shantung sheath dress with white accessories.

50th Anniversary For Katrine Grange

The Lake Katrine Grange celebrated its 50th Anniversary this month. A dinner was served to the Grange members and their guests at the Grange Hall in honor of the occasion and a special program was presented. The principal speaker was Leland D. Smith, master of New York State Grange.

Other dignitaries present were: Vernon A. Barnhardt, deputy state master, Mrs. Claude Palen, state juvenile deputy, George Mollenhauer, Ulster County Pomona master and Mrs. Helene Mollenhauer, Pomona lecturer.

John J. McCardle, master of Lake Katrine Grange, greeted the members and guests. The program was in charge of Mrs. William T. Hookey. Six members with the Lake Katrine Grange fifty years ago were present and honored. They were: Harry C. Davis, who was also honored as the oldest member of the Grange, Mrs. Kathryn Davis, Mrs. Edith Legg, William R. Kraft and James J. Gaddis and Roger H. Loughran.

During the program, a picture of Valentine Gaddis, who donated the land on which the present Lake Katrine Grange Hall was built, was unveiled. Representatives from all the Granges in Ulster county were present for the occasion.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST
(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

FOR THE SAKE OF FRIENDSHIP

The first letter in today's mail describes a very difficult situation: "The husband of friends of ours is a salesman for a washing machine company. He works on a commission basis. I need a washing machine very badly, but I do not happen to like the make this friend is selling. I much prefer another make but my husband thinks it would be very disloyal to this friend to buy a machine from a competitive company and will result in the loss of friendship. Are we bound by friendship to buy the washing machine from him?"

Unless, after you tell him of your preference for his competitor's machine, he assures you that his feelings will not be hurt, I am sorry to say that you would run the risk of losing his friendship—especially if he as a super-sensitive person.

Monograms for the Wedding Reception

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the correct way to have matchbook covers and napkins printed for our forthcoming wedding? My fiance's name is Gerald but everyone knows him as Jerry. Would it be proper to use Jerry and Anne (or should it be Anne and Jerry) for these items.

Answer: Correctly at a formal wedding you should use only the two initials of your two families. But at a not too formal wedding, and on items as informal as those you mention, you could use "Anne and Jerry."

Clothes for Afternoon Wedding

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I have been invited to a late afternoon wedding—five o'clock to be exact—and to the reception following. Would it be proper for my husband to wear a white dinner jacket and I an evening dress? If not, what would be the correct clothes for us to wear at this time of day?

Answer: No evening clothes are ever proper before six o'clock. Correctly, you should wear an afternoon dress and hat and your husband a business suit.

Where and how future-in-laws should meet after the engagement is explained by Mrs. Post in leaflet EO1, "Engagements." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

County Offices To Close Early Starting July 1

Commencing July 1, under a state law, Ulster county public offices will observe early summer closing hours daily when public offices will close at 4 o'clock instead of the usual 5 p. m. closing. This regulation applies to all public county offices. Under the provision of the same law public offices will remain closed all day Saturday during the months of July and August.

For some time previous to the passing of the present law, county offices observed the 4 p. m. closing hour during July and August. Included in the early closing and the all day Saturday closing is also the Motor Vehicle Bureau office on Main street.

MRS. BERTRAM SACKMAN
(Photo Workshop)

Adner-Sackman Garden Wedding Held At Governor Clinton Hotel on June 24

M. Maxine Adner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Irving Adner, 27 Crown street, became the bride of Bertram Sackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Sackman of 197 Euclid avenue, Albany, in a garden wedding June 24 at 2:30 p. m. at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Rabbi Jacob Rubenstein of Congregation Ahavath Israel officiated.

Ruth H. Cohn sang, "If I Loved You," "All The Things You Are," and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The bride, who was escorted by her mother and father, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with short sleeves. An overlay of nylon net interwoven with a leaf motif ended in a chapel train. Her white scalloped crown of net embroidered with seed pearls held a fingertip veil of white nylon net. Miss Adner carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Charlotte L. Sackman, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. She wore a cocktail length dress in white chiffon with a periwinkle blue sash and carried a nosegay of yellow daisies and roses.

Mother of the bride wore a blush pink chiffon dress with basque effect and a tiara of pink roses.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue waltz length dress and an orchid corsage.

Best man was J. Schuyler Sackman of Syracuse, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception for approximately 120 guests was held in the Crystal Room of the hotel.

Miss Adner is a graduate of Kingston High School and New York State College for Teachers at Albany. She is a member of Sigma Phi Sigma sorority and has accepted a teaching position in Virginia.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Milne School in Albany, and New York State College for Teachers in Albany. He is employed as a research mathematician by the U. S. Navy at U. S. Naval Proving Grounds in Dahlgren, Va.

When Mr. and Mrs. Sackman return from their wedding trip to Cape Cod, they will make their future home in Dahlgren, Va.

Russia has the largest continuous land area in the world, with Canada ranking second.

Governors Go Below

New York, June 28 (AP)—The governors of New York and New Jersey descend 95 feet underground in Manhattan today to join sandhogs in completing the third tube of the Lincoln Tunnel under the Hudson river. Govs. Averell Harriman of New York and Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey were to preside at the official "holing-through" ceremonies by making fast the last of 145 steel bolts holding the 2,031st and final ring of the tube together.

Style Trends Return Luxury To Bedrooms

Luxury is returning to the bedroom. Recent trends seem to indicate a decided swing toward bedrooms that carry a touch of elegance and graciousness. The hard, prim look is on the wane.

Perhaps the best indication of this is the late revival of interest in canopy beds. Obviously, they have always been in style for Provincial and Early American rooms. Now, in streamlined form, they are appearing in contemporary settings with attractively tailored canopies and neat, clean lines. They lend an air of elegance matched by few other pieces of furniture.

Another touch, the coupling of twin beds to a single wide headboard, gives the grand illusion of a double bed, but provides the sleeper with the greater individual comfort of separate beds. One large, well-designed spread adds the note of luxury to this arrangement.

There has also been a decided tendency to get rid of the "cluttered" look in the bedroom. Fewer pieces of furniture lend an air of spaciousness to a room, and this is one of the prime requisites for true elegance.

There's luxury, too, in the new supersize bedding. Recently standardized by the Bureau of Standards, these mattress and spring combinations make the bed the focal point of the room both from the point of view of style and comfort.

Paper Plate Helps

A paper plate under a paint can will adhere to the can preventing paint rings from getting on floors and furniture and afford a handy place to lay a paint brush.

THUMBS UP—Trapped in his overturned car after it hit a tree stump and overturned near Falls Church, Va., Robert J. McKay, 20, awaits rescue. Fate was kind—McKay was only scratched in the accident which demolished his car.

THUMBS DOWN—Cigaret (arrow) driven part way through windshield of this car is mute evidence of hurricane-like force with which two autos collided head-on near Pekin, Ill. Fate turned "thumbs down" on passenger Harold Keller, 30, who presumably was smoking the partially consumed cigaret. He was killed by the impact.

Holiday Can Be 'Glorious' With Quick Shortcakes

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

For a glorious Fourth serve a glorious cherry or strawberry shortcake. Julie King, from Georgia, a southern girl who knows fine eating, showed us how to make two. She says the more she experiments with instant cream the more she likes it. That's why she uses it in both of these colorful shortcakes.

Quick Shortcake

Two cups biscuit mix, ½ cup instant cream, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¾ cup water.

Mix the dry ingredients thoroughly and stir in water. Roll out into six biscuits. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes in oven at 450 degrees F. Split the shortcake biscuits and make a sandwich filled with canned or frozen pitted cherries or fresh or frozen strawberries (if you prefer, pit fresh cherries and allow them to stand in sugar for a few hours). Top with the same fruit.

Instant Cream Shortcake (Makes 5 to 6 shortcakes)

One-third cup instant cream, 2 cups flour, sifted, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons shortening, about 2/3 cup water, softened butter or margarine.

Sift together instant cream, flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or 2 knives until mixture is texture of cornmeal. Stir in water with fork to make soft dough. Pat to ¼-inch thickness on floured surface. Cut with 3-inch biscuit cutter. Spread half of biscuits with softened butter or margarine. Top with remaining biscuits. Place on a greased baking sheet and bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Split and serve hot with sweetened fruit, and cream if you wish.

LUSCIOUS FRESH cherries make tempting shortcakes, especially when served on new instant cream pastry cakes.

Saugerties Will Open Auto Lot On Friday Night

The new 100-car municipal Partition street parking area in Saugerties will open officially at 8:15 p. m. Friday during special dedication ceremonies. Mayor Arthur F. Simmons and Thomas W. Reynolds, president of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce will cut the ribbon.

THE NEW PARKING area is scheduled for completion at 5 p. m. Friday and will be open for free parking until the time of the dedication when a ribbon will be drawn across the entrance.

In conjunction with the grand opening a group of merchants in the business district have made available 1,000 official Saugerties parking meter tokens good for an hour and a half free parking. The tokens will be distributed following the ceremonies to all adults as they leave the entrance of the lot.

THE TOKENS are made to fit the nickel slot in the meters which also take dimes and quarters.

The ceremonies will be attended by members of the village board of trustees headed by Roy S. Helsmoortel, street department commissioner, who was in charge of the project.

Chamber President Reynolds will act as master of ceremonies.

The new parking facility for the village came into being through the cooperation of the village board and the Chamber of Commerce who initiated the program in October when members of the off-street parking committee of the Chamber secured an option on the former O'Dea property. The option was held in anticipation of purchase by the village through a bond issue which will be paid off with parking meter receipts from the lot.

PRIME MOVERS in the project were Chamber President Reynolds, Albert J. Cawein, executive secretary; Kenneth Beadle, and John Offermann who gave a long term lease to the village without remuneration on property adjacent and now part of the parking area.

Since the purchase, the O'Dea building was demolished by William Wootton, local excavator and the site filled in, leveled and paved by the street department of the village under the direction of William Voerg, superintendent.

The parking area with entrance and exit on Partition street is located between the entrance of Jane street and Russell street. The area extends back approximately 200 feet towards Washington avenue.

Saugerties School District Shows 1,730 Enrollment

Of the total enrollment to date of 1,730 in Saugerties Central School system, 1,038 pupils are attending in area schools and 692 are attending and living in the village of Saugerties (former School District No. 10) according to the publicity committee of the school building program.

This means the number of pupils originating in the areas outside of the village is therefore nearly 60 per cent of the total enrollment in the central school system, the report said.

The total assessment on the area property outside the village is $3,796,546. In former District 10 it is $2,915,799.

THE ASSESSMENT in the area outside of the village therefore represents 57 per cent of the total assessment in the central school district. These figures show that the total assessment and therefore the total tax to be paid by the area outside of the village district is almost identical with their percentage of the total enrollment.

This further shows that there is a difference of only .03 in the percentage of tax to be paid by the rural area in the district.

Voting on the $3,475,000 bond issue for the new junior-senior high school, Mt. Marion elementary school and alterations to the Main Street and Glasco Schools will be held Friday at the high school.

The polls open at 12 noon and close at 10 p. m.

Levine Building $4,000,000 Motel At Miami Beach

Miami Beach, Fla.—A prominent Kingston businessman is building a multi-million dollar luxury motel in this southern resort city.

Joseph Levine, owner of the Kingston News Service, will also be the owner of the $4,000,000 Aztec, a 130-room resort motel.

The oceanfront resort will be one of the most elaborate in the Miami Beach area. It will include two lobbies, two swimming pools, a 400-seat private movie theater, 200-seat supper club, 150-seat cocktail lounge and 100-seat coffee shop.

Other features will be television, card and children's rooms, barber, beauty and gift shops, solariums, steam rooms, private beach, patio bar and dining area, cabana and playground areas.

An Aztec-modern theme will be carried on throughout the motel. Two unusual decorative features will be a huge replica of the traditional Aztec sacrificial altar and a copy of the famed Aztec time wheel.

Forty-eight of the Aztec's rooms will be apartments, 15 will be ocean front suites.

Boy Scout Shot

Sardinia, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—A 19-year-old boy, Robert C. Dilimone, of Buffalo, was shot to death by a companion yesterday while target shooting in this Erie county village. State police said the shooting was accidental. The authorities said Dilimone was shot in the neck by a bullet from a .22 caliber rifle in the hands of Salvatore T. Lo Faso, 18, also of Buffalo. Police said Lo Faso apparently fired the weapon just as Dilimone was rising from a prone position in front of him.

Battle Possible If Senate Votes To Cutback Aid

Washington, June 28 (AP)—The Senate agreed to start voting today on a $4,502,000,000 foreign aid bill with prospects for a major battle over proposals to cut that amount.

The big test was expected on a move to cut back 600 million dollars from the $2,600,000,000 the Senate Foreign Relations Committee recommended in military assistance. The House voted two billions for the purpose. President Eisenhower originally asked three billions in military assistance, and $1,900,000,000 in economic assistance.

Another proposal would cut the total to the $2,700,000,000 voted for foreign aid last year, but Sen. Ellender (D-La.), a sponsor of it, said the opposition "has the votes sewed up" to defeat it.

Other fights appeared in prospect on efforts to shut off all aid to Yugoslavia immediately, and to reduce aid to India.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland (Calif.) said the vote will be close but that he believes enough votes are assured to retain "substantially the money recommended by the committee."

'BLIND FAITH'—Capt. Theodore Harris, decorated Air Force pilot who was a prisoner of war in Korea, tells investigating senators in Washington June 27 how he stood beside his grave in North Korea, faced a communist firing squad and refused to sign a false germ warfare confession. Boy Scouts Open Summer Camping Season on July 1

The local Boy Scout Camp, Camp Tri-Mount near East Jewett, will open up for its 10th season Sunday, July 1, for what promises to be a record season. For the first time in the history of the camp reservations exceeded the capacity and the season had to be extended an extra week to accommodate all the Scouts and Explorers who wanted to come to camp this summer.

DURING THE first week three troops will be camping with their own leadership. They are Troop 44 spnsored by the Catskill BPOE, who will have its Scoutmaster Anthony Zinnati, Sr. serving with them in camp; Troop 19 sponsored by Kingston VFW, will have its Scoutmaster, Carl A. Wiegert, Sr. in camp wilth them for the week; and Troop 3, sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Kingston, who will have Dr. Clement Angstrom, assistant scoutmaster, serving as their camp scoutmaster for the week. In addition to these three troops there will be 25 Scouts and Explorers from various troops of the Council who will be formed into a provisional troop for the camp week. Throughout the course of the summer there will be 21 troops camping with their own leadership—five of them for two weeks each. While in camp the troops will participate in all the camp activities under their own leadership using all the facilities the camp provides—waterfront with ttrained staff, handicraft lodge with a director, experts in all outdoor merit badges, a rifle range, an archery course and range with instructors.

NEW FACILITIES added to the camp this year are a new waterfront building which is now under construction but will be completed before the end of the first week; a renovated shower house; wash racks on each troop site; a family cabin for the families of troop leaders while they are in camp; addition of two new stoves in the kitchen; more tools in the handicraft lodge. The waterfront building is a gift to the camp from the Rotary clubs of the area. The family cabin has been built by members of the Joyce-Schirick Post 1386 of Kingston.

George V. Dennis, scout executive of the Council, has announced that at the present time there are 505 boys signed up for a total of 572 boy-weeks for the season with requests for reservations coming in to the Council Office every day. He also announced that only three weeks have openings; the fourth week (July 22-29), the fifth week (July 29-August 5) and the seventh week (August 12-19). The camp staff, under the leadership of J. Eugene Johnson, camp director and field scout executive, reported into camp on Tuesday to get the camp completely set up for the first week campers and to receive the training necessary to make sure they function as a team to bring the best scouting possible to each and every camper this summer. Frank Bourke, Council camp committee chairman, has announced that the camp will be inspected by the Region July 17 at which time the Council camp committee and Council health and safety committee will be on hand at camp to assist with the inspection and to make plans for the fall and next summer season.

Political Action Urged on NAACP

San Francisco, June 28 (AP)—Direct political action and passive resistance were urged on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, meeting here today, as weapons to win equal civil rights.

"It is within our hands to determine whether there will be a Democratic or Republcan 85th Congress," said Clarence Mitchell, top political strategist of the non-partisan NAACP.

He said Negroes hold the balance of power in 60 congressional contests and 16 senatorial races in November elections. The Negro vote cannot be controlled, he said, but could be tipped either way with "a little direction."

DEFENDS DECISIONS—Joseph L. Rauh Jr., chairman of Americans for Democratic Action, tells senators in Washington June 27 that charges of "procommunist" decisions by the Supreme Court is "arrant nonsense," and have been made "to discredit the court." New Election District Will Be Created

A new election district comprising all of Mt. Marion and a small portion of lower Fish Creek will be created at a special meeting of Saugerties Town Board Saturday at 10 a. m. in the town building according to Peter M. Williams, supervisor.

This will be the first change in township election districts since the 1900's, he said.

The new district to be known as No. 10 will consist of a part of Fish Creek District No. 5 and a part of Glasco District No. 8.

According to Supervisor Williams the change was motivated to accommodate the large number of new voters in that area which includes the Mt. Marion Park development.

The new boundary between the Glasco and the newly formed Mt. Marion district is the center of Esopus creek along

Ike Beginning To Gain Weight

Washington, June 28 (AP)—President Eisenhower's doctors reported today the Chief Executive has started to gain weight for the first time since his operation.

This encouraging news came as the President, after making the first public appearance of his hospital stay, prepared to leave Walter Reed Army Hospital Saturday morning and continue recuperation at his Gettysburgh, Pa., farm.

AN 8:15 A. M. EDT medical bulletin said:

"The President had a fine night's rest. He slept almost continuously for nine hours.

"His temperature is 98, his pulse is 78, his blood pressure 118 over 70, his respiration is 18—all of which are normal.

"His weight this morning showed a gain of one pound.

"HIS CONDITION continues to progress satisfactorily. His spirits and morale are high."

They certainly appeared high last night when the President popped his head through the open window of his hospital room and waved a salute to a small crowd and the army band, which had lured him into public view for the first time with a rendition of "Army Blue."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said in giving out the morning medical bulletin that the President is sending his compliments to the band leader, Maj. Hugh Curry, for a "very fine performance."

Eisenhower's weight now is 163 pounds. It has stood at 162—a loss of 7 pounds—since his June 9 operation.

having wonderful time... SHOPPING!

When summer comes, spring is far behind—in sales. People shop a billion dollars more in summer than in spring!

"Summer slump" has been replaced by "summer jump" according to the U. S. Department of Commerce. It reports that retail sales were $45.8 billion last spring, then soared to $46.8 billion in the summer.

People are just as active reading their newspapers in the summer, too. Daily newspaper circulation remains almost constant all year 'round.

Put these facts together and they spell SALES. Make sure you get your share of summer sales—use the newspaper to reach people in the summer. Remember—there's no summer slump in sales or newspaper readership. And there's no summer replacement for the newspaper! All business is local...and so are all newspapers.

Acker Pitches No-Hit No-Run Game in City Baseball League

Big Bob Shelightner has been transferred from the Coco, Florida club to the newly organized Rookies League in Nebraska. Bob will catch for Hastings, Neb., in the 63-game season that gets under way around July 1.

Each of the eight teams in the Class D circuit is sponsored by a major league—Hastings by the New York Giants. The league is an innovation in organized baseball and is designed to take care of high school and college graduates. It also means steady work for the Port Ewen lad.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Mickey Mantle's home run streak has the "Knock Down Babe Ruth Club" working overtime. Now they're insisting that as many as six or seven of Ruth's homers in 1927 came on balls that bounced into the right field stands at Yankee Stadium. Such a hit is now scored as a ground rule double. The rule was instituted some time after 1927 but there is no evidence that any of Ruth's shots ever made the stands on one bounce. . . . New York Giants are inviting all area baseball players between the ages of 16 and 21 to their tryout school July 2-8 (Monday-Tuesday) at the high school athletic field in Saugerties. Joe Benjamin will assist Giant scouts Tony Ravish and Chick Genovese in handling the camp. . . . New York Knickerbockers have accepted an invitation to train at Upsala College, East Orange, N. J., where a $575,000 gymnasium on the Vikings' campus is now under construction. . . .

Joey Hoffman of Kingston High and Joe Martin of Saugerties are tabbed the two best high school players to graduate in June. . . . Martin batted .482 for the Sawyers and clubbed four home runs. Kingston Bowling Association installs Whitey Crispell as new president on July 9 at the annual dinner at Chic's Rendezvous. . . . Little League Commissioner John M. Lindenmuth of Williamsport, Pa., congratulated Vernon J. Kelder, district LL representative, and area officials on their open meeting last week. Said it was the first such meeting ever held by a LL organization anywhere in the country. . . . Sue Heins Hatch writes from Los Angeles where the Hatches have moved from Florida. "The country out here is bowling crazy. . . . And it has Florida beat 100 per cent."

The average height of the first string New York Knickerbockers basketball player in the past 10 years has increased eight inches. The extra tall man in professional basketball has become an integral part of the modern game because he does most things better than the little man, such as scoring, ball handling, rebounding and defending. The day is coming when the 6-foot "runt" in the NBA will be as extinct as the nickel beer. . . . Lonesome and homesick, Kid Gavilan has decided to return to the United States early in July. . . . Sugar Ray Robinson is relaxing on a Westchester golf course for six weeks and decision on his next fight will be reached after he tires of golfing. . . . As if you didn't know, the shortest home run in the major leagues is possible at the Polo Grounds—a fly ball against the upper left field facade of the Polo Grounds—exactly 250 feet, the legal minimum for a homer. . . . Benny Borgman during his visit here predicted Vinegar Mizell will be one of the great pitchers of the National League.

Answers to some recent cocktail lounge arguments on baseball. Only two players have hit EXACTLY 58 home runs in one season—Hank Greenberg and Jimmy Foxx. Also Leo Durocher played with five major league clubs—Yankees, Reds, Cardinals, Dodgers and Giants. . . . You might just as well get in on this one, too. A pitcher pitches a perfect no-hitter (27 men in a row) yet the batting averages of the victimized team don't change. How come? Well, it was opening day of the season. The boys started with .000 and ended the same way. . . . Well. . . .

Elks Trounce Nyack in NY-NJ

Southpaw Larry DeVita, a probable starter against the Kingston Colonials Saturday night at Dietz Stadium, pitched the Poughkeepsie Elks to a 12-5 victory over Nyack in a New York-New Jersey League contest last night at Riverview Field.

DeVita recently blanked the Walden Jewels in his Elks debut, striking out 17. He fanned 10 last night. The win was the fifth in six starts for the Bridge City entry.

Johnny Babiarz of the Elks official staff said DeVita would probably get the nod against the Colonials. Manager Fred Davi is expected to counter with Jim Mackey or Bob Maines.

Pete Falvey was just about the whole show in the Hawks 17-9 victory over the Wrens in the Jaycee Little League.

All he did was pitch the win and slam four hits in five trips. One of his blows was a two-run homer. He also doubled twice and singled once.

Jack DeKoskie was raked for 15 hits and took the loss. Barry Bliss wasn't far behind Falvey with three hits while Herb Shults and Bob Winston chipped in with two apiece.

DeKoskie got three of the Wrens blows and John Whelan, Pete Minasian and Bob Chilson two apiece. One of Hughes' blows went for a double.

The win enabled the Hawks to escape the cellar where they were tied with the Wrens going into the game.

Torpid Sets World Record

Westbury, June 28 (AP)—Torpid set a world record for two-year old pacers on a half mile track last night at Roosevelt Raceway when he toured the Westbury oval in 2:02 3/5 to win the $15,000 Knight Dream pace.

The Colt, sired by Knight Dream for whom the race is named, is owned by the Sherwood Farm of Irvington, N. J., and was driven by John Simpson. The previous record of 2:03 was held jointly by Adios Boy and Quick Chief.

Torpid was the even money choice of the crowd of 1,673 and returned $4, $3 and $2.60.

PITCHING — Tom Poholsky, Cardinals—Walked only one and struck out five despite thundershowers which interrupted the game for an hour and 45 minutes while five-hitting the Giants 6-0.

HITTING — Chico Carrasquel, Indians — Had five-for-six with his fifth hit an RBI single that beat the Orioles 12-11 in 11 innings for the Tribe's eighth straight victory.

Stops Nadler Nine 1-0; His Rival, Bob Maines Permits Only One Hit

Johnny Acker of East Kingston carved himself a niche in the City Baseball League's Hall of Fame yesterday with a no-hit, no-run 6-0 victory over previously undefeated Nadler Motors.

In this same pulse stirring contest, southpaw Bob Maines of the Motormen allowed only one hit to collaborate with Watzka in perhaps the greatest 2-man pitching performance in the league's history.

A redoubtable pitcher in the early stages of the twi campaign, the Watzka Nine hurler was in brilliant form. He struck out five and walked four as Jack Watzka's tossers moved into a second place tie with their victims.

It was the third straight strong performance for the East Kingston lad. He had dropped a 2-1 decision to Clark Mains in his first start, then 3-hitted the Saugerties Whiz Kids into submission.

STATISTICS-wise, Maines was almost as impressive, except for a momentary lapse in the fifth innings when Watzkas crashed through for the lone run of the game. The former KHS southpaw struck out 12 and walked three.

The Watzka tally didn't come easily, requiring an initial free pass by Maines to Bob Olen, Johnny Godwin's error, a wild pitch and an infield. It was a complicated run to say the least but it was enough to give Acker the finest victory of his career.

THE ONE safety permitted by Maines was a double by pinch hitter Bob Cooke in the sixth inning. Cooke's hit fell just in front of the outstretched hands of Steve Cea.

Otherwise the base paths were clear of runners except for an occasional base on balls or miscue.

(League managers and officials are scheduled to meet at the Athletic Field, following this evening's contest between Dobler Beer and Ellenville).

THE SCOREBOARD

It isn't how long a winning streak you can put together that counts in the two major league pennant races this season—it's how fast you can bounce back from defeat that tells the story.

Take that madcap National League scramble. Milwaukee's Braves had run up 11 straight successes before being jolted by Philadelphia. Then the Phils laid the wood to 'em again last night, 4-3 in 11 innings, and for all their hustle the Braves have no more than a half-game hold on first place.

Cincinnati lies just 12 percentage points back after routing Pittsburgh 10-2. And if the Redlegs, who have won five of their last six games, can do it again tonight while the Braves are idle, they'll grab back the NL lead.

Brooklyn's Dodgers closed to within 1½ games of Milwaukee by beating Chicago 6-2. That gave the Brooks a sweep of the three-game set with the Cubs after a doubleheader loss to Cincinnati Sunday.

IN THE OTHER NL game, St. Louis walloped New York 6-0 with three home runs and Tom Poholsky's five-hitter.

In the American League, the New York Yankees whipped Kansas City and strengthened their lead to 2½ games as the Chicago White Sox were beaten 11-9 by Boston after winning nine in a row. The White Sox, who swept four from the Yanks for New York's only losses on the just-ended western trip, picked up only three games for all their huffin' and puffin'.

Cleveland's Indians made it eight straight victories since the Yankees left town by overcoming an eight-run Baltimore lead to bop the Ohioles 12-11 in 11 innings. Detroit's Tigers staggered through their 11th start without victory, losing to Washington 3-1.

Willie Jones, Andy Seminick and Stan Lopata homered for the Phils, with Lopata's No. 14 shot clearing the left field stands to break a 3-all tie gained by Philadelphia on a double by Jim Greengrass in the ninth. Johnny Logan and Hank Aaron homered for the Braves. Ron Negray won his first and Ernie Johnson lost his second, both in relief.

GUS BELL, Frank Robinson and Stan Palys each drove in two runs in a nine-run eighth inning that won for Cincinnati. The Redlegs used six hits and four Buc errors to overcome a 2-1 Pirate lead and hand Bob Friends his fifth defeat. Danny Kravitz homered and hit a sacrifice fly for the Pirates who have lost 10 of 11.

Infielder Johnny O'Brien pitched the ninth for the Bucs—and didn't give a hit while fanning two.

A crowd of 24,353 gave the Pirates a home attendance total of 486,580—15,191 more than they drew all last season.

Four runs in the fourth, pushed along by two Cub errors, won for Brooklyn in a game delayed almost 2½ hours by rain. Roger Craig was the winner for a 7-2 record with relief help as the Dodgers beat Warren Hacker (1-7) for the eighth straight time.

KEN BOYER hit two of the Card homers and drove in three runs to take the NL home run lead with 19 and the RBI top spot with 57. Hal Smith hit the third homer, all off Johnny Antonelli who lost his seventh. Poholsky, now 5-5, walked but one and hit a two-run double as the Cards took over fourth place.

A sacrifice fly by Billy Martin, following a triple by Tom Sturdivant who won his fifth, broke a 2-all tie for the Yanks in the fifth inning. Hank Bauer put it away with his 16th homer in the eighth off loser Art Ditmar. Mickey Mantle, still 11 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 60 home run pace although he hasn't clubbed one in a week, singled ahead of Bauer's homer for his only hit in three trips. He was 1-for-2 vs the shift.

The Yankees, who won 9 of 13 on the road trip, drew a whomping 385,545 for the 13 games.

Boston blew a 7-0 lead, then came on with three in the eighth for the White Sox' second defeat in a 14-game home stand. Ted Williams was 4-for-5. Dave Philley drove in four for the Chisox.

Perry's Cop 1st Round

Venuti Blanks Prospects, 9-0 On Five-Hitter

Perry's Grill removed any lingering doubts about which is the best team in the City Softball League (for the first half, at least) by drubbing Prospect Dairy, 9 to 0, in last night's first round playoff at Dietz Stadium.

Joe Venuti's brilliant 5-hitter and two fat innings (4-5 in the third and fourth, off Tino Reynaud wrapped up the one-sided decision for the Grills.

CLIFF DAVIS and Ted Beland land spearheaded the Perry attack with a double and two singles in four trips. Jack Houghtaling clubbed a single and double.

Hill top raked Knight for 13 hits and got a 5-hitter from Al Cross to drub Madden's TV, 12 to 2.

Don Koeppen went "4 for 4" all singles, Curly Bosco hit a double and two singles. Werber's two singleton's paced Madden's.

Tommy Maines homered and Bob Schatzel and Frank Spada had three hits each as Subway Grill overpowered Wimpy's Grill, 8 to 4. Tom Spada checked Wimpy's with four hits, two of them (double-single) by John Woods

DICK BRADLEY of Miron Lumber edged Ben Freer of Chez Emile, 4 to 3, in a pitching duel. Chezzies outhit Mirons, 6-4, but a three-run cluster in the third saved the game for Mirons.

Two of the four Miron safeties were home runs by Cliff Schwark and Bill May. Scheffel and D. Moyer poled triples.

Elks Drub KPA, 5-1 in FYL on Don Kruszenski's 0-Hitter

Faces 23 Batters, Fans 6

Don Kruzenski fashioned the first no-hitter of the season in the Fraternal Youth League last night at Dietz Stadium as the Elks tripped the Kingston Patrolmen's Association, 5-1.

The blond righthander blanked the KPA for six frames but lost his shutout when Bob Hoffman scored an unearned run from second with two outs in the last frame. The Police then loaded the bases on a missed third strike and pass, before Krusenski bore down and forced Bill Robinson to ground out to end the thriller.

Kruzenski faced 23 batters, two over par. He struck out six and walked three. Three errors were made behind him, but two of the runners were tossed out stealing on rifle throws by Bill Niles.

OPPOSING hurler Ron Prosser came the closest of spoiling Kruzenski's masterpiece in the sixth. Only a great pick up and throw by shortstop Ed O'Connor on a sharp hit ball that bounced off the rubber saved the situation.

Prosser, a lefthander, twirled a stout game, yielding just five hits. He had a no-hitter riding for three rounds before Jerry Sampson broke the spell with a hit. Prosser weakened in the sixth and allowed three runs to cross, two coming on a home run by Tom Cragan up the bank in left center field. Hank Schatzel, who was hit by one of Prosser's serves, scored ahead of the circuit. Kruzenski tallied the other run from second base on a wild peg after Sampson's second safety to the outfield.

THE ELKS got the first run of the game in the third without benefit of a hit. Niles walked, was sacrificed to second and came the rest of the way when Prosser uncorked two wild pitches.

Niles scored the exact same way in the fifth as the Elks went ahead 2-0. Dan Van Wagnen singled and Chuck Fuscardo doubled in the same frame, but the hits were wasted.

Reading Bids For First Place

(By The Associated Press)

Will the Reading Indians, the Eastern League's 1955 pennant winners, do it again?

The Indians whipped the league-leading Schenectady Blue Jays 4-1 last night at Schenectady as they backed Bob Locke's five-hitter with an 11-hit attack.

THE VICTORY moved the Indians to within two games of the Jays. The second-place Allentown Redbirds also continued to lose. They dropped a 6-1 game at Albany as the Senators broke a tight pitching duel between Stan Willis and Allentown's Bill Smith with a five run attack in the eighth.

The seventh-place Syracuse Chiefs scored their sixth straight victory over the Williamsport Grays 5-2 at Syracuse, and the Johnstown Johnnies edged the host Binghamton Triplets 3-2.

Hurley Schedule To Be Indefinite

Because of the untimely death of Manager Fred Nash last night, the schedule of the Hurley Little League will remain indefinite.

Today's game has been canceled and players are requested to watch the papers for announcement of the next playing date.

Nash, 29, suffered a coronary and died on the field.

Fireworks Extra At Speedway

Fireworks of a pyrotechnic nature and on the track will be the double bill offered Saturday night at Rhinebeck Speedway.

A brilliant display of fireworks will be touched off in front of the main grandstand when darkness overtakes the county speedway.

Meanwhile, several of the drivers have scores to settle as the season's point battle goes into full swing. Merwin Hummel of Saugerties took over the point leadership last week when Bill Boo of Pawling failed to finish the main event.

Joe Messina of Troy and Tom McGrath of Pawling also are in contention, along with Dick Overfield of Hyde Park.

Olivet-Koenig Tandem Takes Twaalfskill Member-Guest

Mrs. John Olivet and Mrs. Joseph Koenig combined for a net 66 to win the 9-hole Member-Guest tournament staged this week by The Twaalfskill Club ladies.

Forty four players competed in the competition in which the combined handicap was deducted from the combined gross scores.

The winners grossed 106 and had 40 handicap. Second place went to the team of Mrs. Albert Flanagan and Mrs. Betty Carnright with 107-40-67.

Rams vs. Cardinals

Harry Lowe set down the Cardinals on four hits as the Longhorns breezed to a 7-1 win in the Boys' Club Baseball League. In other action, the league-leading Rams walloped the Hornets, 15-8.

Lowe displayed perfect control and struck out 14 in the seven inning duel. The Cards spoiled his shutout with a run in the first.

Don Ellsworth doubled twice off loser Frank Fay who fanned 14, passed two and permitted eight hits. Bruce Houghtaling and Harold Winters also socked two-baggers.

The Rams came up with 10 runs in the last inning to knock off the Hornets who led 6-5 going into the fatal round. Bob Elliot was the victim of the barrage while Dick Derrenbacher gained credit for the win.

Derrenbacher and teammate Dick Whitaker paced the hitting with four hits each in four trips. Charlie Manfro doubled and singled and George Brown poked a two-baser.

Three U. S. Gals Gain Semis in British Amateur

Sunningdale, England, June 28 (AP)—Three American girls won their way into the semifinals of the British Women's Amateur golf championship today.

Powerful Margaret (Wiffi) Smith of St. Clair, Mich., and little Polly Riley of Fort Worth, match this afternoon while unheralded Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, Va., will be in the other semi-final.

Power-hitting Miss Smith, who has become the tournament favorite, overwhelmed Ireland's Pat O'Sullivan, 8 and 7. Miss Riley turned back her U. S. Curtis Cup teammate, Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore, 4 and 3. Miss Janssen, the upset-maker of the tournament, surprised Elizabeth Price, veteran British Curtis Cup star, 4 and 2.

Driver Appeals

Hamburg, June 28 (AP)—A harness driver fined Monday by judges at Buffalo Raceway for "not maintaining a reasonable rate of speed" in a race has filed an appeal with the U. S. Trotting Assn. Levi Harner, who paid the fine, said yesterday he had appealed the judges' decision to the Trotting Association's District 9 Board of Review.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By WARREN PAGE
Shooting Editor

The newspapers recently carried a tale of an outraged motorist who sued the state of New York for damages to his family car when he ran into a deer on the highway. He argued that the deer as a game animal was state property and so should be fenced off the highway by the state. "No sale," said the judge. The motorist ran into that deer at his own risk.

So do you, and in many areas it can be quite a risk. Last fall, coming into Meeker, Colo., from our deer camp late in the evening, there was a whole squad of mule deer crossing the road, and two of them froze in the headlights. We stopped, using up 10,000 miles of tire rubber in the process, so a couple of deer and a shiny new pickup were saved.

I'VE NEVER seen auto-kill figures on Colorado or other western states, but they may run even higher than those of New York, where the estimate is that between 2,000 and 2,500 deer-car embroilments occur each year.

In 1955, speeding gas-buggies smacked down 698 whitetail on the Thruway alone. The number of humans killed was unspecified but people do get hurt in from one to three per cent of the highway encounters with deer, often because the driver's frenzied effort to avoid an animal flips his car into the ditch.

So running into a buck is no fun. Even if you don't have a hospital bill you may be in for a fat fee at the local garage, anywhere from $50 to $2,000 with the average between $250 and $300. Expensive venison, which you don't get anyway, since any carcasses that may be salvaged go to charitable institutions.

THOSE DEER crossing signs mean what they say. Deer habitually move to feed or to water, or for their own whimsical reasons, on much the same lanes, regularly crossing highways in the same areas.

And they do not cross like intelligent pedestrians. Often they come in a bunch, strung out behind a savvy old lead doe as much as 200 yards, so that the deer you're actually watching in your headlight beam as safely across can be followed at any instant by one that pops out of nowhere directly into your path.

Your super-bright headlights just make matters worse, confusing the animals until they freeze—and few wild animals have any conception of the speed at which a 250-horsepower sedan trundles down the concrete. If you see one animal, slow instantly, watch for more because they'll be somewhere in the neighborhood, a whole family. don't blast your horn—that will either petrify a doe square in your path or set the whole group into jumping chaos.

RVLL Sox Win Fourth

League Standing

	W	L
Red Sox	4	0
Tigers	1	2
Braves	1	2
Cubs	1	3

*Red Sox extended their unbeaten streak to four straight in the Rondout Valley Little League when they edged the Cubs, 4-3, yesterday.

The game ended with a close play at third base after the Cubs had rallied to score two runs. Doug Lyons tossed out Don Parete trying to steal third.

FRANK STELLA and Bill Roosa had a no-hitter going until Ralph Temple doubled in the sixth. The final Cubs hit total was three.

Bill Roosa slammed a double and two singles to lead the winners with a perfect "3 for 3" performance. Tony Causa rapped two singles and Stella hit a double.

Heavy Slate Scheduled at Goshen Track

Goshen—Come Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, a most spectacular Grand Circuit trotting and pacing program will begin to unfold here at the picturesque little half-mile oval known as Historic Track.

From the far corners of the harness horse world will come the champions of other campaigns.

And with the caravan will be the two-year-olds, ready to make their bids for initial fame as many great champions have done at Historic Track.

SCOTT FROST, 1955 Harness Horse of the Year, will head the cavalcade of standardbred standouts that will perform at Historic Track's five afternoon meeting.

Saboteur, two-year-old trotter of 1955 and winner of the coveted E. H. Harriman Trophy, is at Historic, hoping to add to his favorite's role in the Hambletonian by winning the Historic-Dickerson Trophy race, a preview to the August classic.

R. W. Hart, vice president of Historic Track, pointed out today that at least eight races will be featured daily.

TWENTY EVENTS have been scheduled with more than $110,000 being listed in purses.

Following the four filly stakes Monday, the E. H. Harriman Two-Year-Old Trot on Tuesday, the Historic-Dickerson Three-Year-Old Trot on Wednesday, the Goshen Two-Year-Old pace on Thursday, and the Titan Free-For-All Trot on Friday, will share the spotlight with other classics that have resulted in the gathering of the harness racing clan at Historic year after year.

Ithaca Youth Golf Champ

Syracuse, June 28 (AP) — Stew Wallace of Ithaca has won the New York State Junior Golf Tournament.

The 17-year-old champ had a 72-hole total of 298.

John P. Konsek of Buffalo was runner-up with 299.

Wallace fired a par-70 in the final round to regain the tournament lead that he had taken on the opening day Monday but lost Tuesday to Konsek.

Charles Petko of Buffalo, with a 302, was in third place in the tournament, sponsored by the New York Golf Assn. for players under 18 years old.

Chestnut Camp Defies World After Costa TKO

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Ike Chestnut and his walloping right hand were steaming today for another crack at a ranking featherweight.

Chestnut, the unrated underdog, stopped fourth-ranking Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn last night on a TKO in 29 seconds of the eighth round in a scheduled 10 at Capitol Arena. The fight was nationally televised and Broadcast (ABC).

"I'm ready for anybody they give me," Chestnut said afterward.

"And that includes Sandy Saddler," added beaming Manager Hymie Wallman.

Saddler is featherweight king, and Chestnut will have to prove himself against some others before he gets a chance at the title. But his stunning upset of Costa, a 2-1 favorite, jumbled the ratings and surely earned Chestnut a spot among the first 10 challengers.

WHILE WALLMAN was talking up a future bout in Washington, Costa and his handlers were looking for action anywhere but in the nation's capital.

Costa had never fought outside New York before last night—and never before had he been stopped in 36 contests.

"The officiating was rotten" fumed Manager Steve Paris and Trainer Jerry Salica. "This is why we don't like to go out of New York."

Paris protested Referee Harry Volkman should have let the fight continue. Carmelo had risen after an eight count and claimed he was all right. Paris also criticized Volkman for not penalizing Chestnut for what the Costa camp charged were low blows.

Volkman called the halt after Costa went down from a clubbing left for the second time in the match.

F. Ferraro Raps 625

It's hard to keep those bowling Ferraros out of big type.

Last night it was Fred Ferraro who paced the Summer Mixed League with a 625 series. His games were 192, 215 and 218.

Bill Lawrence fired a 606, with 189-205-212. Buster Ferraro toppled 226-567, Tess Moss 491, Mary Wyant 465, Harold Broskie 210-584, Bonnie Reilly 462, Ann Kirn 459, Sickler Sr. 508, Mike Ferraro 233-546, Chris Robinson 200.

EVELYN GROSS spilled 463, Larry Petersen 203-580, Charles Brooks 225-578, John Howard 209-536, Mabel Chapman 456, Rose Schatzel 462.

Team results:

Buster Ferraros 0, Broskies 3; Morris Bag & Junk 1, Donato Bros. 2; B&R Millers 2, Wonder Bread 1; Bluebird Cabins 2, Petersen Construction 1; Amell's 2, Ned's Atlanic Service Station 1; Alpine 2, Jones Dairy 1; Shannons 1, Starlight Hotel 2.

Savel Leader With 108 Score At Catskill CC

Steve Savel of Western Turnpike birdied the 516-yard eighth hole at Catskill Country Club and went on to win low pro honors with a 27-hole total of 108 in the annual Pro-Member tournament.

Savel, John Gaucas and Alex Gerlak of Twaalfskill tied with 71s in the first round.

Gerlak went one over par on the 25th hole where he missed the green on the par-3 hole and then three putted the 27th from 15 feet away.

Armand Farina, Schenectady Municipal pro, fired a one-under par 35 on the last round to tie Gerlak and Gaucas for second place with 109.

HOST PRO Alex McIntyre and Mike Killane and Gerlak and Jack Gutman tied for best-ball honors with 61s in the pro-member division.

Three other teams were bunched at 62—Dr. Mahlon Atkinson-John Gaucas; Jim Murray, Amsterdam, and Sgt. Gerald Bobo; and Bob Haggerty, Edison, and Al. Mikhitarian.

Inger Walker Wins at WCC

Mrs. Inger Walker fired a net 67 to gain her first leg on the monthly trophy award at the Woodstock Country Club.

The fast rising young golfer posted a 100 gross and had 33 handicap in the 18-hole division.

Mrs. Anthony J. "Wiggie" DeLisio carded low gross of 86 and netted 72 with a 14 handicap.

MRS. ALICE Marr posted 110-29-81 and Mrs. Helen Dendy, tournament chairman, had 107-25-82.

Mrs. Kathleen Elwyn won the 9-hole division with 34 net. She grossed 49 with 15 handicap.

The tournament is played the last Tuesday of each month and a player must win three times in order to retire the trophy.

Folding Doors

If you have too many doors in your house and they're blocking traffic, solve the dilemma by substituting quiet folding doors made of vinylcoated nylon. They fit any standard door opening and are easy to install.

Better Than Soap

Soap applied to wood screws makes them go into wood easier but sap can have a corrosive action on certain types of screws and cause them to rust. It's better to use beeswax as a lubricant than soap.

Schultz Elected Woodstock Legion Post Commander

Woodstock, June 28—Schuyler Schultz was elected commander of the Woodstock American Legion, Post 1026, for 1956-57 at the regular meeting held last night at the Legion Hall.

Other officers elected include Elwood DuBois, first vice commander; Lynn Covert, second vice commander; Eric Wiltz, third vice commander; John Peper, finance officer; Arthur DiNapoli, chaplain; Thomas Carey, historian; William MacReady, service officer; John Peper trustee for three years; Benjamin Buley, steward.

DELEGATES to the American Legion county convention are Commander Schultz and William Melville and the alternate delegates are Wayne Underhill and Joseph Friedberg.

Following the installation of officers Wayne Underhill, past commander, presented William Melville with a past commander's pin. Melville thanked the members for the support given to him for the past year, in which the Woodstock Post received a cup for the largest number of members subscribed during the year.

A DISCUSSION took place on the possibility of having Von's Circus to be sponsored by the Legion, and the date has been tentatively set for August 1.

Henry Grazier reported on the progress of the fireworks committee, substituting for Everett Cashdollar, chairman of the event, who has been ill at his home. The fireworks will be held July 7, at the Woodstock Riding Club field on Ohayo Mountain. Anyone wishing tickets may procure them from any Legion member. The price is $1 per car. A large crowd is expected to attend the spectacular fireworks display.

REFRESHMENTS will be available at the field, served by the Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will sell pinwheels and souvenirs.

New members welcomed to the Legion were Daniel F. Hurley, Walter R. Peters and James D. Smith.

didn't want the money, but took it after Ruocco said "you're in this as deep as I am."

FRIAS' BODY was found near a road following the shooting April 21, 1955.

At the close of yesterday's court session, the prosecution moved to enter into evidence Marsala's purported signed statement said to have been made during the questioning by Adams. Defense counsel obtained a delay so they could study the document.

Marsala and Ruocco each has his own lawyer. Counsel for both men are seeking to show that any statement taken was obtained by beatings.

Adams testified that neither he nor any one else so far as he knew had beaten either prisoner.

Jewish Center Is To Use Svirsky's Pool This Summer

A swimming pool and other outdoor recreational facilities will be available during the summer starting Sunday, for members of the Jewish Community Center and their families, it has been announced.

At a meeting of the organization's board, Wednesday night, negotiations were completed to rent the pool at Svirsky's Esopus Lake Hotel on Route 9W, sout of Port Ewen.

The adjoining play area offers tennis courts, handball courts, ball field, picnic grove and children's playground.

Jay Cee Cee day camp, now in its third season, will use the pool and grounds weekdays until 4 p. m.

After day camp hours and on weekends, the sites will be for adult members of the center.

Operation of the "site for family use" is in charge of a committee appointed by President David Kline of the Community Center.

Serving on it are Sidney Halpern and Leon Crystal, co-chairmen; Mrs. Merrill Stone, Mrs. John Levy, Mrs. Harry Spiegel and Harry Fertel.

It is planned to hold special events during the summer.

In addition to the Svirsky play area, others in use are Camp Kingston, and the lake front at Mirror Lake.

Arrangements for the play areas were completed by a committee consisting of Mrs. William Zwick, Mrs. Herbert Kletske, David Kline, Sidney Halpern and Sol Silverman, director of the Jewish Community Center.

Memberships and credentials are obtainable at the center, 265 Wall street, for use of the pool, which will be opened officially on Sunday at 11 a. m. Closing time is 8 p. m.

It is estimated that more than 700 persons in the area are affiliated with the Jewish center.

A lifeguard will be at the pool at all times, it was announced, but children of members must be accompanied by their parents in order to gain admission to the pool area.

mined to liberate Taiwan," the communist premier said. "This is the unshakable common will of the 600 million Chinese peoples."

"The Chinese (communist) government have repeatedly pointed out that . . . the Chinese people would seek to liberate Taiwan by peaceful means so far as possible.

"AT PRESENT, the possibility for the peaceful liberation of Taiwan is increasing.

"Since we issued the slogan of striving to liberate Taiwan by peaceful means, many Kuomintang (Nationalist) military and political personnel in Taiwan and abroad have expressed their patriotic desires.

"We believe that those who wish to promote the peaceful liberation of Taiwan and the complete unification of our motherland will steadily grow in number.

Chou asserted that the U. S. forces backing Chiang "are by no means dependable forces."

Soap the Glass

If you don't have any masking tape handy when it's time to paint around glass, coat the glass with soap. This will prevent the paint from sticking but better not try to wash off the soap until the paint is thoroughly dry.

post and Civil Air Patrol who will also provide a color guard and ambulance.

Cars entered include two Chamber of Commerce cars, one with Miss Saugerties and attendants and another with Chamber officials; Public Health Nursing Committee, Saugerties Chapter, DAR; P-TA of Saugerties Central School; Saugerties Village Board, Garden Club car or trailer; Girls' Community Club, Camp Fire Council, Imperial Council, Daughters of America and St. Mary's School P-TA.

Fire trucks to parade will include R. A. Snyder Fire Company, Centerville Fire Company, Washington Hook and Ladder Company, truck and tank car of Malden-West Camp Fire Company, Saxton Fire Company and Exempt Firemen's Association truck.

THE PARADE will assemble at Barclay Heights at 9:30 a. m. and will step off at 10 a. m. Directly following the parade refreshments will be served by the R. A. Snyder Fire Company at the Municipal building and by the C. A. Lynch Fire Company at Lynch Firehouse across the creek.

Musical groups signed thus far are Saugerties Drum Corps, Father Harty Drum Corps, VFW Drum Corps of Kingston and Boy Scout Troop 12 Band of Kingston.

In the evening the annual celebration dance will be held in the parking area to the rear of the Municipal building. The High School Swing orchestra will supply music for dancing.

The all-day program will be interrupted during the afternoon to permit local residents and visitors to attend the baseball game between the Saugerties Dutchmen and Poughkeepsie at Cantine Memorial Field.

FOLLOWING THE parade at 12:30 a dinner will be served to the Fourth of July Committee, the judges and Father Knickerbocker as honored guests through the cooperation of Frank Costello, proprietor of the Flamingo Restaurant and Ernest Fick, Ruppert distributor of Eveready Beverages Inc.

PRIOR TO the dinner reception for Father Knickerbocker, Walter Stapleton, who with Mrs. Irene Roming serves as co-chairman of the annual celebration, will escort the nationally known figure to the firehouse on Partition street and the Lynch firehouse across the creek where he will be greeted by the youngsters and sign autographs.

The line of march from the assembling point at Barclay Heights will be as follows: Hill street, Partition street, left on Jane street; right on Bridge street, right on Main street, left on Washington avenue, left on Lafayette street and left on Partition street to the municipal building.

Other committee heads not previously mentioned are: Mrs. Edwin B. Bond, secretary; Mrs. Louis P. Francello, treasurer; Mrs. Hazel Drewes, dance chairman; Mrs. Catherine Teetsel, finance with Mrs. Francello and Albert J. Cawein, Father Knickerbocker reception chairman.

Broom Closet Matches

Among the many units produced by the manufacturers of wood kitchen cabinets is a broom closet made of the same woods as wall cabinets and base units. The broom closet fits with the other units as an integral part of a wall pattern.

Sabin Installed Rotary President

Robert L. Sabin was installed president of Kingston Rotary Club at the annual meeting held Wednesday at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Other officers of the local service club for the ensuing fiscal year are William E. Rylance, vice-president; Emil G. Boessneck, Jr. treasurer; Harry L. Edson, secretary; Sam Pepper, sergeant at arms; Donald Cooper, program chairman.

Retiring President Ray A. Elmendorf was presented with a specially embossed art folder with certificate of appreciation together with his past president's pin. Frederic Snyder made the presentation and reviewed the work of the club during the past year under the presidency of Mr. Elmendorf.

Mr. Sabin and Mr. Rylance, official delegates, reported on the annual convention of Rotary International at Philadelphia.

VICTORIA CROSS DOUBLECROSS—Queen Elizabeth II thought she was meeting one of the Commonwealth's heroes when she chatted with this wheelchair occupant at ceremonies June 26 in London's Hyde Park for 300 holders of the Victoria Cross, Britain's highest military decoration. He turned out to be Thomas Meagher, an undecorated car park attendant who wandered into the affair. A policeman, noticing the 64-year-old man's limp, hustled him into line in a wheelchair. The hoaxer was still chuckling June 27—the Palace authorities weren't. (AP Wirephoto via radio from London).

Bleach for Wood

Hydrogen peroxide is a pretty good bleach to use on wood but you need the commercial variety not the weak solution used in the home for antiseptic purposes.

Loose Wall Tile

Wall tile that are loose but still in place can usually be made secure again just by filling in around the edges with a white tile cement.

WHICH ARE TOP SEVEN NATURAL WONDERS?—In this bumper year for visitors to the nation's national parks, surest way to start a hassle is to arbitrarily list the seven top natural wonders of our country. You take your vacation and make your own selection from among the sights, several of which are illustrated in sketch, above. No one—but no one—will go out on a limb and be identified with an opinion concerning anything so personal as appreciation of color, grandeur, majesty or sheer beauty. Travel agencies, park officials, tour agencies—all remain mum. Selection, following, is a concensus of several authorities who are vigorously anonymous: Grand Canyon, Yosemite, Yellowstone, Crater Lake, Carlsbad Caverns, Mount Rainier, Rainbow Bridge.

Boy Is 11th Victim

Minneapolis, June 28 (AP)—A 7-year-old boy died of burns early today becoming the 11th victim of a jet plane crash which destroyed several Minneapolis residences June 9. Jeffrey Kieffer was the last survivor of five children burned by flaming jet fuel when the navy plane, attempting to make an emergency landing at the Minneapolis airport, fell short and crashed into a row of homes, setting them afire. Jeffrey's sister, Jennifer, 2, died yesterday. Another sister, Cassandra, 5, died June 18. They were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kieffer whose home was one of those destroyed.

MAKE NEW STEEL PROPOSAL — David McDonald, right, president of the United Steelworkers Union, poses with representatives of the nation's "Big Three" steel firms before a closed meeting in New York June 27, at which the companies made a new contract proposal in an effort to head off an industry-wide strike. Left to right: John A. Stephens, vice president United States Steel; Thomas Patton, vice president Republic Steel; John Morse, counsel for Bethlehem Steel; and McDonald. Present agreement expires at midnight June 30. (AP Wirephoto)

tions continued after the contract expires at midnight Saturday.

THE LETTER suggested that during the negotiations the union give 72 hours advance written notice of a strike anytime after the deadline to prevent cooling damage to furnaces.

The companies promised in turn to shorten their demands for a five-year contract to four years and four months "with a proportionate reduction in benefits."

Length of the contract has been a major bone of contention. The current contract is for two years, with a one-year wage reopener.

McDonald rejected the companies' proposal as an "eleventh hour" offer that "meets none of the union's reasoned objections to their original proposal."

THE STEELWORKERS president countered by offering to put off the strike for two weeks—until July 16—provided any agreement reached in the extended negotiations was retroactive to July 1, the original strike deadline.

The companies studied this for three hours and rejected it because of the retroactive provisions.

"Continued negotiations should be conducted with equal pressure on both parties," they said in a replying statement. This condition "is not present when the union is guaranteed by retroactivity that no matter how it may delay agreement, it has nothing to lose."

THE INDUSTRY contends that any increase in wages would have to be offset by higher steel prices. It pointed out that no retroactive rise in prices could be imposed to meet a retroactive pay increase.

Shortly before midnight, the union came up with a new proposal.

It called on industry leaders to "negotiate and conclude a settlement tomorrow—or, if you feel additional time is necessary, extend for such part of 15 days as may be required to conclude a settlement with customary retroactivity."

To Discuss Addition

A meeting will be held today at 8 p. m. at the Hurley School for a discussion of the proposed addition to the school. Qualified voters of Union Free School District No. 4, towns of Hurley and Ulster, will vote Monday, July 2, at the school on a $150,000 bond issue to build five additional classrooms on the present school.

Boy, 13, Drowned

Clayton, N. Y., June 28 (AP)—John Charles Duncan, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane J. Duncan of Roslyn Heights, L. I., drowned last night in the St. Lawrence river. Police said the boy apparently had slipped from a village dock into about six feet of water. His nude body was discovered by a fisherman and was identified by Miss Bebe Kennedy, his aunt, of Edwardtown, Mass. Police said the boy and his aunt had been staying at a tourist camp.

Suspended Sentence

William Kahrs, 17, of 421 Wilbur avenue and Fred Vaughn, 17, of Box 34, Cedar Grove, Saugerties, who were arrested at 3 a. m. today on West O'Reilly street by Officers Joseph Keller and Louis Sapp, Jr., on a disorderly conduct charge, were given a 30-day suspended sentence when they they appeared in City Court today.
